

BILL GATES YOU ARE A FOOLISH DEMON

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Foolish Demon Bill Gates, you had lived among human beings for sixty six years, in a Multi-Ethnic Classical Liberal Democratic Republic, and you wish to be the Monarch of the World and you do not understand that this is impossible without a political platform that is attractive and explicit and campaign in fifty states to form consensus first?

You needed your lackey as President and your lackeys filling up all of Congress before you can command American Military. And you did not do any of that. Instead, you hid behind glib lies about innovations of technology while practicing black magic to murder rivals and others for five decades.

Do you really think you will defeat an Archangel in an Angelic World with these sorts of incompetent and graceless gestures, Demon?
