

LOOK WHITE PEOPLE IN AMERICAN GOVERNMENT APOLOGIES ARE WORTHLESS

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Look, apologies are worthless. It's obvious. Assume I promise to deliver natural rights to eight billion and collect taxes from everyone and live on it. Then I let a racial murderer kill lots of people, don't do anything and provide apologies. Is that palatable? It's not palatable. As a government based on US Declaration of Independence Preamble, where government are instituted among men to secure natural rights and you are harming me, who paid my taxes and followed the laws, and followed my American Dream and suddenly a career criminal harms me, sabotages my legitimate earnings of $620 million from Finance destroys my career and you don't stop him at all after India tells you breaching blood meta is criminal intent and you actually collude with him to destroy me. My aunt is outrageously abusive every day driving to domestic violence while I have to change the whole world order while on disability while my patience is eroded in taking heaps of verbal abuse everyday. You think that the world will want you around at all after this? You think apologies are worth anything? No one pays taxes with whatever earnings they have to be destroyed by white supremacists with $131 billion destroying people on disability who are trying to get their lives together?
