

MY PROMETHEAN CHARACTER

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

1. SHELLEY'S OWN COMMENTS

The only imaginary being, resembling in any degree Prometheus, is Satan; and Prometheus is, in my judgment, a more poetical character than Satan, because, in addition to courage, and majesty, and firm and patient opposition to omnipotent force, he is susceptible of being described as exempt from the taints of ambition, envy, revenge, and a desire for personal aggrandizement, which, in the hero of Paradise Lost, interfere with the interest. The character of Satan engenders in the mind a pernicious casuistry which leads us to weigh his faults with his wrongs, and to excuse the former because the latter exceed all measure. In the minds of those who consider that magnificent fiction with a religious feeling it engenders something worse. But Prometheus is, as it were, the type of the highest perfection of moral and intellectual nature, impelled by the purest and the truest motives to the best and noblest ends.

2. ONE COULD SEE BILL GATES AS A ZEUS FIGURE

I have certainly showed a courageous and firm and patient opposition to Bill Gates. He is certainly Tyrannical, malevolent and harmful. I have shown great Virtuous strengths against the evil man's destruction of my interior, his attack on me using US War meta, his continuous racial slurs.

What is important is that despite the power of Bill Gates and the harm inflicted against my person, I was able to deliver the first full spectrum of Virtues today after he had done so much damage that my breathing has been laboured and health in bad state. The analogy of Prometheus bringing fire to humanity is quite apt. And of course, I believe that my Natural Rights, especially of Life, cannot be secured without killing him which American Government had refused to do for more than a year now.
