

ZULF CLEARS UP THE CONFUSIONS REGARDING WHITE PEOPLE

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

I'm American. I've been dealing with, living amongst, and socialising with, white Americans for 33 years. They are 200 million of Americans, and they come in all sizes, personalities, education levels, spectrum of malevolent evil of unspeakable abominable horrors (like Bill Gates) to the most saintly angelically good like some I know personally. White is not an ethnicity at all. It is a general term referring to European-Americans. In other words, white people are the sum total of all European people who immigrated to America from 1492 and their descendents.

What about this White Race? There is no 'White Race' you idiot. White Race is a goddam fiction.

Fine, if you're using legitimate national tribes, you do have German ancestry, and Italian, English, Spanish, Dutch, French, and you have some mixtures too. That's fine. If you say I'm German-Swedish-American that's an ethnicity that's legit. But if you go around talking about 'White Race' you're an idiot.

"The largest ancestries of White Americans are: German (13%), Irish (12%), English (9%), Italian (6%), French (4%), Polish (3%), Scottish (3%), Scotch-Irish (2%), Dutch (1%), Norwegian (1%), Swedish (1%), and Russian (1%)." [1]

Now I actually like Europeans, and I have had European and European-American lovers in the past, and I know quite well that no one in Europe considers themselves 'White'. That's mostly an American thing, maybe also Canadian and Australian. In Europe Italians are Italian and Swedes are Swedes and no one in their right mind going around talking about 'White Race'.

I am serious. If you go around talking about 'White Race' you're an idiot. Don't do that.
