

POINTERS TO HOW TO FIT INTO ASIA FOR RUSSIA

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Russia, so when I was younger, I had some idea that I might want to fit in with the cool people. Well, you know, the cool people are a little judgmental, and they keep measuring you to see if you're really worthy, by their standards. If you're cool enough. Well as I grew older I realised that this was not the right way, and I just now only spend time with people who respect me as I am. Russia ought to have been part of Asia in the past thousand years instead of trying to be part of Europe. They never really wanted you. That's not good for you. Come join Asia. I was born there. We'll accept you as you are.

I made a flag for Asia.

You see, you know Asia but you never really took the leap and joined Asia so let me tell you about some things. Don't ever invade Afghanistan or any other Asian country. That's considered quite rude.

Have you heard Jim Morrison's "The End"? Hear it again [1]

See, that is Indian influence in the music. Use English and language issues are fine. So you'll get a bit of Indian influence eventually in some of your popular music. You'll have some people meditating and contemplating the cosmos. Food and music will change a bit. But you won't feel that you're not welcome anywhere in the end.

Good, Russia, I like the more mature Russia. There is no reason to be continuously trying to prove yourself European enough. Be yourself. Learn Sitar.
