PRODUCES LECTURES ON UNIVERSAL POLITICAL THEORY
FOR VLADIMIR PUTIN

President Putin,

We don't know each other personally, and I generally have a good impression of you, mostly because I am biased by two great Russian men, Fyodor Dostoevsky and Andrei Tarkovsky, great geniuses of art.

Anyway, you see let me try to put my theory in plain language. The human race is deeply a single race. I know you and all Russians find it offensive when I use the Da I'm Raaashaan, but these are superficial things. I have a number of beautiful young Ukrainians in my list of potential romantic partners, so I feel obligated. Well Darina was from Petersburg, stunningly beautiful, a total sweetheart, but she could not take the risk that Bill Gates would be trying to destroy me and left.

Ok, on to the lecture. You see, trust is very basic. Little rabbits trust other little rabbits and start sniffing each other. The neurobiology of trust is from early childhood. Children have two simple states. Safety mode surrounded by trusted people and then unsafe mode when there is distrust of surrounding people. In safety mode children, kittens, rabbits and people are happy, relaxed and playful.

You think you have all sorts of theories of politics. Most of it is bunk. Very simply, if you are benevolent to  $n$  people in the sense that they are playful when you are around, and they believe – you can't fool human keen instincts though it's feeling more than belief of the mind – that you are trustworthy then they will confer their respect to you. You see democracy is a very weak measure of this.

You don't need to win any elections at all to be trusted by any  $n$  people and gain influence over large groups. The  $n$  is arbitrary. It could be  $n = 9 \times 10^9$ . The only thing that matters is that you are actually benevolent towards their interests.

Now you are a bit too emotional about I'm Raaashan so I can't stand it when Raaashans could be mistreated. This works, but it's primitive. You should gain deeper understanding of things and do the I'm Huuumann so I can't stand it when any Huuumans are hurt. This change does not have to abandon the Raaashans. They are human too. And what this perspective does is frees up your mind. That's when you can work on Natural Rights World Order.

I'm originally from Bengal. I am Asian-American, but I don't really care about ethnicity of people. I am strongly for Natural Rights of Raaashans and non-Raaashans too, like Ukrainians.

Your approach is classical, not just Cold War. You're doing the Medieval Monarch bit, with subjugation of the fringes of the Raaashan Empire. This will produce short-term success and long term isolation of Russia. You're too natural resource heavy to compete with West. You need to expand your people past Raaashans to all people. It's not really a Presidency. It's pure influence. And global trust has no tricks. You need to be benevolent to be trusted. Do this and Maathar Raasha will be just fine. Fail, and you are bringing misery for no reason and constraining Russian people's dreams without realising. They dream of being part of a great world with great opportunities.

So learn from Zulf, and all people will love Raaasha just fine. Do you understand, Mr. Vladimir Putin?

1. SEEK AN ASIAN UNITY AND RUSSIA SHOULD DECLARE ITSELF ASIAN

Declare Russia as Asian, and pull out from Ukraine without conditions. Then do brotherly bond with Asian brothers and sisters, all 4.5 billion of them without disturbing Ukraine at all. Then you will see that your unity is so big that all of NATO with their various countries is pixie sized. Then push for Eurasian Defense unity. NATO will reorganise and your headaches about Russian Defense will be gone.

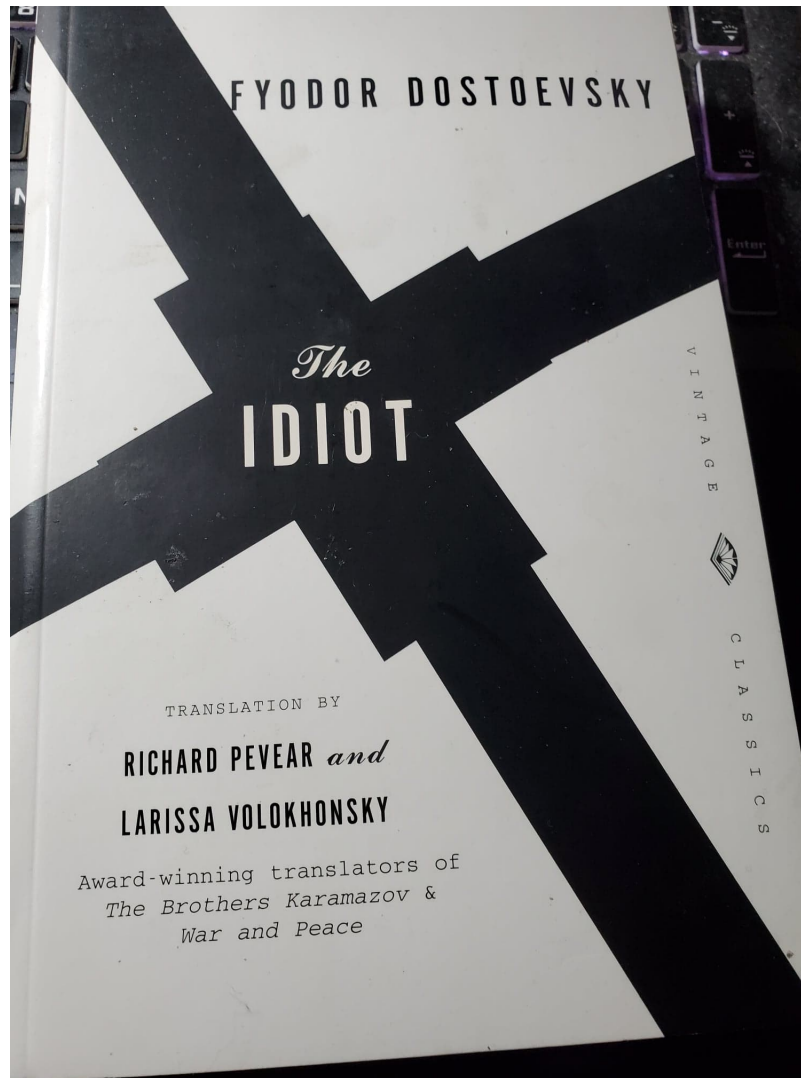

You understand? You need the bigger consensus first. Then NATO will be quite obsolete because money in Asia is growing. That's the order to play this, Vladimir Putin.

No one wants Russian Ethnic Domination. You need to expand to huge multi-ethnic consensus. You are a fool because Asia is right next to you, and you are worrying about creating an ethnic megastate. That's not world order material my friend.

2. THE PERSUASION MODE

I will use my persuasion techniques to convince not just Vladimir Putin but all those in Russian Government that what you should do is withdraw without any demands from Ukrainian Government. That's right walk out with all your military units without any demands. Then focus all 100% of your energy on Asian Defense Union. Don't even bother with what NATO does or does not do.

Let me show you my copy of Fyodor Dostoevsky's The Idiot. I also have all of Mikhail Bakhtin's books.

I've read all of Dostoevsky multiple times from teenage years. I have also seen all of Andrei Tarkovsky's films. That is meant to give you a certain feeling of familiarity. It's probably not real because I like Russian (and Ukrainian) women but I have never actually lived with one so I don't know, and besides in reality you might hate me because I am pretty snooty about literature and film.

With that out of the way, let me tell you something. You see, Russia is pretty old.

"Thus, the first East Slavic state, Rus', emerged in the 9th century along the Dnieper River valley. A coordinated group of princely states with a common interest in maintaining trade along the river routes, Kievan Rus' controlled the trade route for furs, wax, and slaves between Scandinavia and the Byzantine Empire along the Volkhov and Dnieper Rivers."

That's a snapshot, so you're old, but what you have never really done, even with USSR is to note that Asia is an Organic Unity from Malaysia, Indonesia, Japan all the way to Egypt. That's right. Organic unity. You don't need wars of conquest and subjugation at all. You need instead an pact of mutual defense and natural rights security in this entire region.

Do you understand? I'll give you the flag.

So Russia does not lose any sovereignty at all, and neither do any of the other Asian nations. You just adopt this flag for all of Asia and Russia becomes formally part of an Asian bloc.

Then just follow organic laws rather than attempting to vassal all the states. Just expand United Nations agreements to include Asian Defense. But otherwise just relax. Eventually this will gobble up all of Europe. You have to pay attention to how organic transformations work. Do not seek political hegemony. Just focus on natural rights.

This will overwhelm anything remotely like NATO so badly that NATO will need to readjust. And readjust. And readjust. Ad infinitum until people don't even remember why it exists.

3. WHAT IS REALISTIC PUTIN?

United States will decide what NATO does. What will the neo-Nazis decide to do in US Government? They won't attack Russia because you have nukes. Instead they will be chomping at the bits to attack Asian nations and "contain" Russia and China.

Walk out of Ukraine without any demands, produce an All-Asia Defense Alliance, poor countries, rich countries, weak and strong every Asian nation. Then make a nuclear umbrella. Put Russia under Asian flag. Then when United States gets frustrated and cooks up some other fake reason to attack Asia, then you have the driver's seat.

I don't know why you invaded Ukraine even if bad things happened to Russian speaking population. Let Asia go in as neutral people, hug and kiss Ukrainian speakers and Russian speakers and get natural rights security.

United States is not interested in a war with Russia. I know my country very well. There are NSC-68 people deep in the underground plotting wars in Asia all day and all night in Washington. So they'll talk about "Russia is bad. Russia is bad" and do nothing with Russia but keep hurting Asia.

4. UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

I intend to totally nix the United States of America because I did not see sufficient enthusiasm to secure my natural rights and I am Asian-American. I'll nix you and you'll have to exist in memory alone. If you actually destroy Bill Gates the war criminal, I will reconsider, so that's the game from my end. I personally sold exclusive newspaper reports of Abu Ghraib in Valencia and Mission Street two decades ago. I know all about how important natural rights are to you really. Quite painfully and with great sacrifices of my Life and Health and Body now I know your true colours. I have a great heart, so if you do something to convince me otherwise, I'll keep you around. Good luck.

5. OBVIOUSLY MY CONSCIENCE IS WORTH TWENTY UNITED STATES OF AMERICAS

Ha. What do you think? That a mere puny nation state will be worth more than the Conscience of a great immortal genius. You can't be serious. My Conscience is worth twenty United States of America stacked one on top of another. You did not know that? Well to me it's quite trivial and obvious. I have heard Bill Gates explicitly and openly tell US Government he plans genocide of nonwhites in America. So I will nix the United States of America rather than compromise my Conscience. What sort of fool do you think I am? Only a pure fool would think a mere nation state is worth more than his Conscience.

Amusing, United States Government. Droll. Hah. Hah ha ha ha ha ha ha. A mere little nation state worth more than my Conscience. Such an absurdity is truly humorous.

6. WELL I HAVE TO SECURE MY ETERNAL LIFE OBVIOUSLY

I am an Archangel of billions of years and will be an Archangel for another billion after I die. Why would I compromise my eternal Life in order to appease a puny 250 year old nation state. I will obviously nix the United States of America before I go if I am quite clear that they have been harbouring, aiding, abetting a genocidal murder plotter and I have actual experience to verify this truth from harm to my own Deep Interior?

The arrogance of these people in the United States Government is astounding to me, that they literally think that I would compromise my eternal soul for their sake when I know that this evil Bill Gates is a genocidal war criminal who plots harm to 100 million people.

Well, I will nix United States of America to satisfy the demands of my Conscience but I will be amused for a long time at your brazen arrogance. Hah. A puny little nation state who feels more valuable than the Conscience of an Archangel of Heaven.

Stranger things have happened in the universe but that is quite amusing to me.
