

BILL GATES BARBARIC SAVAGERY BEHIND MASK WOULD FRIGHTEN PLEISTOCENE CAVE MEN

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Despite our prejudices, pleistocene cave men, our forefathers, loved their women and took care of their children, and went about ensuring that the women and children had sustenance. If they came across just how barbaric and savage Bill Gates is behind the mask, they would be frightened. They would not understand how a human looking thing can actually be so savage and barbaric. Granted, the words are of more recent origin. Maybe their words would something like 'this man is so grokuk and murugabe that it is frightening' but you and I both know they were frightened by the abomination, the distance from human that they instinctively saw in the beastly Bill Gates.

But let us return to 2021. What is the reasoning for such savagery? Well Bill Gates has decided to use illicit power to destroy every facet of Zulf's life, and claim all of his work, and give credit to various white people for them. He says "Whites are Superior" in all of this. Now that's a use of "Superior" that is quite unorthodox. I generally did not consider the habit of some tribes to invade and sack and plunder and destroy other people's land and property and rape their women and enslave the children and so on to be particularly Superior. But that's the sort of thing that Bill Gates considers Superior. He says he's a warrior.

Now I have never found any country in the world where a warrior does not want to pay for services of a countryman, then decides to destroy them and sack and plunder their lives instead of paying them for services that benefit them, and proclaim himself "Whites Are Superior Warrior" as the reasoning.

Do you blame the Pleistocene Cave Men being frightened by the savagery and barbarity of Bill Gates? It's quite reasonable.
