

UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL IS NOT INNOCENT IN DESTRUCTIVE HARM TO ME EITHER

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

United Nations Security Council, do you really think that it is credible that you will just wait for United States Government to take action against Bill Gates when he is accused of harming a non-white American such as myself? Is that serious? You clearly do not know anything about America or its history. White racial bias is not a bug but a feature in America. Do you know anything at all about American history. No single white person in Washington's American Government, not even among the State Department Diplomatic Corps holds United Nations views about ethnicity. Are you serious? You just waited for a year without intervention waiting for 1.4 million White People in American Government steeped neck deep in the swamp of 'Let's kill us some Injuns' will suddenly become a citizen of the world talking about when they found artifacts of the great Civilisation in Egypt? What planet were you born in exactly? On Earth, racial biases are part of the Celebrated History of America. Have you never heard of the feast of Thanksgiving that celebrates Native American Genocide in America?

1. ARE YOU JOKING? YOU WORK ON GLOBAL PEACE AND SECURITY AND YOU ARE SHY ABOUT POLITICAL RANCOR?

That is the dumbest thing I have ever heard since high school. Even if you only watched Disney Movies all your life in isolated Wonderland you would not take a job in Peace and Security while wanting to avoid political rancor. That's the 99.99% of your goddam job you stupid numbskulls. You cannot produce any global peace and security if you cannot handle political rancor. That's what peace and security is all about. You deal with political rancor and handle tough deep forces that disrupt peace and security. You were sleeping during your history of the human race courses throughout high school and university and thought that working in diplomacy would look good on you and impress the ladies? Give your job to competent people please. We don't need posers in the United Nations Security Council. We need people experienced in handling political rancor.

My entire life is being destroyed and these fucks are arranging their bow ties and putting flowers in their front pockets and wearing their nice leather polished shoes, putting on perfume and practicing, "Hi my dear. I'm a diplomat." I am doomed.

2. WHY WOULD YOU NOT USE RUSSIAN MILITARY TO KILL BILL GATES?

Washington 1.4 million white people will never touch Bill Gates and not just for racial bias hidden under 'economic interests'. Why did you not understand this instantly and act by asking Russia to kill Bill Gates? I don't understand why you work at UN Security Council at all if you don't know the first thing about nature of America in racial history. Why didn't you ask someone like Noam Chomsky or someone who is Professor of American Racial history first?

I will have to say I am terribly disappointed right now at your judgment.

3. UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL THIS IS NOT A SUGGESTION

Ask Russia to wipe Bill Gates out with lethal military force and order United States Defense to stand down. Do you think my life is a game? I am not your guinea pig. Why do I have to do your job for you? You cannot make simple decisions that are right? You don't have any skills to do any special meta that will turn around a moment of 250 years of Manifest Destiny here. How many UN Security Council folks does it take to screw in a lightbulb? Seriously. Make decisions that are effective. Ask Russia to kill Bill Gates. You have already destroyed my health with allowing the racial murderer live for eight months and more waiting for the impossible. The Pentagon War Chiefs were greenlighting my death. How dumb are you in a scale of 1 to 10? Wait let me guess: -50.
