

HOW AM I SUPERIOR TO BILL GATES LET ME COUNT THE WAYS

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED
ZULFIKAR.AHMED@GMAIL.COM

First of all, I am from an Aristocratic lineage of Vedic Origins with three thousand years of history. Let's look at my photograph.

Second, let's look at my Virtues.

These are world class virtues. I do love my beloved people the Human Race, so my top Virtue, Love is not for wretched illiterate charlatan posers with savage barbaric destructive malice and malevolence hiding behind 'tribal concern for whites' but for the entire human race minus the malignant cancerous pathogens like Bill Gates. This is by far the worst human being ever born, and born to a peasant stock lineage. His intellectual level is mildly higher than a chipmunk.

That brings me to intellectual genius. I was a stellar student in high school in New York 1987-1991 and got all sorts of 5 on Chemistry, Physics C, Calculus BC, and in English only 4 and some others and I was the Valedictorian of my high school, passed all New York Regents Exams with flying colours, attended Princeton University and graduated magna cum laude with many graduate courses in Mathematics and Literature in 1995. I won the prize for the most original thesis of 1995 supervised by Jeff McNeal who is a superb analyst and who has been the head of Ohio State University Mathematics faculty for many years now. I took classes by Peter Sarnak, Nick Katz, Elias Stein, Joe Kohn, Stanley Corngold, Caryl Emerson, Bas Van Fraassen, and many other luminaries of Mathematics as well as Literature.

Then I worked at Lehman Brothers Fixed Income Derivative Research from 1995 while I was negotiating graduate school. At Columbia University I was mostly involved in my own study and ended up working with Daniel Stroock at MIT and have a single paper published jointly with him [?]. Then I worked in Technology, Science, Finance at senior levels. From 2008 I gave up all other things, abandoned my material possessions and sought truth and spiritual enlightenment and was hobo. I was on a quest that had many deep personal spiritual revelations and also solidified four-sphere theory which are the Final Exact Laws Of Nature. It is nominally a theory but it is actually simply the exact mathematical structure of Nature lightyears beyond anything Albert Einstein, Erwin Schroedinger, Paul Dirac, Isaac Newton, or anyone else in history could have imagined. Four-sphere theory is the final theory of macroscopic physics. I already was excited in 2008 but it took a decade to make enough progress to strongly refute gravity, and redshift, explain wave-particle duality clearly, and produce a theory that was exactly correct overthrowing quantum electrodynamics properly. This is work of immortal genius.

Bill Gates, on the other hand was a poser and a charlatan and an intellectual imposter and he was a college dropout and a pure murderous criminal pretending to be benevolent for the past five decades. His virtues and intellect are both abnormal. His virtues are extremely negative and now low. He is a wilfull mass murderer, believes in conquest and slavery and racial dominance of Earth. I believe in Natural Rights Security of eight billion people like the Founders of America.

There is no arena where he is superior at all. My ideas can make much more money than his did and all his achievements were menial compared to mine. I am strictly superior to Bill Gates.

1. CANNOT DEFEAT STARCRAFT II VH AI

Now it's true that I, Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed, do have my limitations. I had a 15 minute loss to Very Hard AI just now [1]. It's true that I am an Archangel who cannot even beat Very Hard AI in a stupid video game. That does not bother me. There are no laws of the universe that says Archangels of Heaven must be top rated Starcraft II players. We are quite accepting of our limitations.

2. LET ME EXPLAIN STANFORD'S DELAY

Stanford University, you are delaying my tenure and money etc. because you're white. It's not easy to see when you're white how radically insane you are. Let me show you how this works. I'm non-white in America from 1987 and I am wise from 50 years of life, so I can show you.

Let's return to Vietnam War. White people don't change quickly. So let's review how white people are like objectively rather than from various rhetorical claptrap.

This is an actual photograph of the real Mai Lai massacre, some of the women and children killed by a white man's orders. 16 March 1968 during the Vietnam War. Between 347 and 504 unarmed people were killed by U.S. Army soldiers from Company C, 1st Battalion, 20th Infantry Regiment and Company B, 4th Battalion, 3rd Infantry Regiment, 11th Brigade, 23rd (Americal) Infantry Division. Victims included men, women, children, and infants. Some of the women were gang-raped and their bodies mutilated, as were children as young as 12.

In order to understand truly how white people are like, we need only look at what happened to the horrible savage evil beasts and butchers afterward by White People's ideas of what is right and what is wrong.

Did Washington fry William Calley and other butchers of Mai Lai? No he was treated well by White America. That's what you expect from White People, Stanford University. You are unable to do the right thing when the baddie is a white man. It's beyond your abilities. Now you can look around the world and see if any other group behaves similarly. You won't find anywhere where baddies are treated with more sympathy than the people they butcher as white people. Does that make sense? This is not strange that you are not rushing to give Zulf a tenure. You're white people. You have trouble doing the right thing if the baddie is white. It's tradition among white people.

3. ZULF MAKES OBVIOUS ELEMENTARY POINT THAT IS TOO HARD FOR WHITE PEOPLE TO UNDERSTAND

Look, white people. All men are created equal with natural rights endowed by the Creator. Now if one man uses (a) White Racial Power, (b) US War Power, (c) US Industrial Power, (d) European Black Magic Power forbidden from thirteenth century unexpectedly totally violating all national and international law and the other man is pissed off because he was not compensated for his great genius work in Finance, then it is obvious that the criminal's life is worth a million times less than the victim's life. My life is literally worth million times Bill Gates life the moment he is a baddie and I was just doing legitimate law-abiding pursuing of my American Dream. This is a crucial and elementary issue that white people had difficulties with. It does not actually matter that Bill Gates is white in this case. He is an evil horrible disgusting vile knave and worthy of burning at the stake once he does these horrific criminal things. And he has in fact done them. I immediately recalculate worth and find my life to be worth millions of times his because I am a normal American who was doing normal legitimate business while he was an evil outrageous baddie.

Now American white people have a difficult time with these elementary computation because they want to pretend that this is a worthy man. He never was. He was always a disgusting worthless charlatan and savage barbaric man from boondocks who deceived and lied his way to making some money. His life, in hindsight was always worth millions of times less than mine. Bad people like him have lives worth less than good people. To the entire non-white people in the world it's obvious. For white people it's extremely difficult. C'est la vie.

4. ONLY 5-15% OF WHITE PEOPLE IN AMERICA CONSIDER ETHNICITY IMPORTANT TO THEIR IDENTITY

I am not tribal at all. I grew up in New York in extremely multi-ethnic circumstances and had gone to university in Princeton, worked in Manhattan, Boston, and San Francisco in mostly multi-ethnic corporate cultures and never had ethnic issues with white people. Bill Gates, who I thought from his public presentation was normal is not. He is virulently zealous about enslaving and conquest of non-white people and used US War Power immediately to harm my physical body. This is banned for military men to use against even Prisoners of War by Geneva Convention but this evil malevolent cunt Bill Gates used profuse amounts of US War Power to hurt me while lying to American high officials that I had forged papers.

My papers were just fine and my Permanent Residency is valid till 2031. Bill Gates lied about my American papers and then used powers during peacetime against someone who did something to make him money and he sabotaged my Finance income by whatever powers that he had and ensured that I could not receive compensation of $120 million while my mom is in her deathbed waiting for financial relief and my family needs my income. This sort of low disgusting vile cunt does not deserve any mercy and ought to be wiped out not by me but by the United States Government. He does not represent white people. He is a crummy little malevolent cunt who was a charlatan and deceiver all his life and has no gift in coding at all. He's a charlatan.

He's from podunk hicktown nowheresville and does not represent views of around 99% white people of America. But he deceived them into thinking he is a good philanthropic guy. He never was any good. He's a total criminal murderous cunt today and was always a poser criminal cunt.

5. BILL GATES PLANS SLAVERY FOR BLACKS AND COLONISATION OF NON-WHITE NATIONS

First of all, I don't really give a damn if you believe me or not. I will vouch for this based on knowledge from dealing with this cunt Bill Gates for more than a year day and night by meta. Bill Gates wants to enslave the black people and colonise the non-white nations again. He believes that natural rights are claptrap and ought to be nixed. He believes white people ought to be masters and non-whites ought to be slaves. These are his agenda. And I will vouch for it by my word. I know by my methods and don't need to prove these.

Now he does not actually know anything about actual economic history. You see, I was never interested in slavery myself for most of my life. I thought it was of minor interest, maybe some lurid FBI television shows about crime rings that entice young beautiful Russian or Ukrainian women with promises of model careers and then make them prostitutes. Lurid sorts of things. So I am not an expert but I did take a quite look at Southern Economy and effect of Abolition. As I suspected, economy did better after Abolition in nineteenth century.

I am a strong natural rights man, so I cannot stand slavery. It's disgusting and I do believe strongly in moral rightness of universal natural rights. Bill Gates is not from my sort of culture, urban professional intellectual culture of high end literati in New York, San Francisco, London, etc. That's my natural habitat. Bill Gates is from podunk hicktown in nowheresville who probably picked of these illiterate uncultivated uninformed opinions with failure to learn in high school the norms of civilisation after 1945.

He does not have a goddam clue about economic effects of slavery. Instead he is a savage barbarian with convictions that belong to acceptability in the goddam Trojan War and in time of Deuteronomy of reasonableness of wiping out all men women and children of some opposing tribe and sacking their cities. That's where he gets 'whites are superior' meaning that whites ought to behave in the same savage barbaric way as laying siege to cities and states and enslaving men and women and murdering children etc. That is what this man is all about. All this technology innovations and philanthropy are all fake for-show things for the man.

6. ZULF THANKS STANFORD LAW FOR SECURING MY AMERICAN-NESS FROM BILL GATES META CONSIDERATIONS THAT I AM NOT AMERICAN

What transpired in meta, highlights by me in the past several hours, February 12 2022. Stanford Law, investigating various aspects of Bill Gates thought, was told by myself in meta that Bill Gates does not know much about the process of what makes someone American, and has been using Power to consider my not American. The fact is that the authoritative body that has the final word on who is and who is not American is the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services and they implement a body of laws that is more than a century old and is remarkably complicated because they represent the lawmakers' work based on messy Democratic Republican rancor for more than a century. The Immigration Act of 1965 had removed all barriers to full Citizenship rights to non-white immigrants. I am not a Naturalised Citizen and will eventually apply for it. My papers, once again, are here:

The expiration of 2031 is not the end of my stay but I have been Permanent Resident since 1996 and have no problems being Naturalised if need be. The important thing here is that Bill Gates seems to believe that he can use illicit Powers to deny me American-ness in meta.

Well the problem is that the laws of US Citizenship and Immigration are fairly robust, and short of a Constitutional Amendment there is not enough political support to change immigration and Citizenship laws enough for him to knock me out of American-ness. This would be not just unlikely but totally impossible. Bill Gates is too illiterate and ignorant about democratic politics and what is possible in it to understand because he plays with illegitimate powers all day and night. In fact he has no authority to dent anyone's American-ness simply by his whim. His $131 billion would not even dent the US Immigration Laws because democratic rancor cannot be moved by money alone. People have all manner of convictions immune to money. Now I am deeply American by Life in America and that is even more impossible to dent because that involves not authority of any organisation but experience of empirical life in America for 34 years, actual history in the land and among American peoples. This even democratic consensus cannot change. Bill Gates is totally deluded about what his power is able to deliver and what is not possible to change.

7. I BELIEVE THAT THE HARM CAUSED BY BILL GATES WILL EVENTUALLY KILL ME

For posterity, as the greatest genius in theoretical physics ever born on Earth whose theory, four-sphere theory, is the final theory of macroscopic Nature, I write down quite a bit of detail of Life and Times of Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed. Four-sphere theory is exact match to Nature, and eventually human race will understand how primitive quantum electrodynamics, expansionary cosmology and general relativity are compared to four-sphere theory. I am 1000% sure that this is Nature as it is, four-sphere theory.

Now fortune in success in four-sphere theory was not matched by the accolades and rewards I was expecting. That is just life, fate, and I accept fate as all great men must.

I was accosted by a rabid pit-bull, a disease, a parasite, a malignant cancer, and I died, say. This is Bill Gates. I was not expecting it obviously. I am a cultivated modern man, a Finance professional, and I have my particular American Life, and suddenly misfortune strikes and you are a victim of some zealous racial murderer who was plotting to enslave and harm all non-white people but pretended to be a good guy in the documentaries and television interviews for five decades. What are you going to do? It's pointless to worry too much about this. The future historians of Science will piece together the Life And Times of Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed eventually because that's what people do when a great genius of Science dies. I will be immortal, and there will be various colourful histories of America 1980-2050 and the various transformations and tales of these times. I will totally destroy Bill Gates' reputation as a favour to the American people, why not? I'm most likely not going to survive his attacks, might as well totally annihilate his reputation. I'm immortal and he's a charlatan. He's win in a way in destroying my life, and his legacy will be wiped out in a century when I will still be immortal and regarded as one of the true blessings of theoretical physics. One has to take what one is presented.

8. BILL GATES HAD USED FULL POWER OF MOLOCH AND INSTANT DEATH CURSES DISCOVERED BY OXFORD HISTORY

Oxford History, I thank you for your consider. You had found that Bill Gates had used the full Power of Moloch and an instant Death curse in my Interior. These are quite bad and harmed my health. Today is February 12 2022, 8:56 PM. Oxford History can confirm at their leisure this report.

This confirms to me a number of things: (a) Bill Gates is an Evil Sorcerer, and (b) Bill Gates had used extremely Evil Powers to induce physical death.

Now I do not do much with evil powers. To me "Power of Moloch" is something I heard from Oxford History. I better read about Moloch from Wikipedia. If I am going to be dead, at least I should learn about some of these strange things that are going to be killing me.

Moloch is a name or a term which appears in the Hebrew Bible several times, primarily in the book of Leviticus. The Bible strongly condemns practices which are associated with Moloch, practices which appear to have included child sacrifice.

Traditionally, Moloch has been understood as referring to a Canaanite god.[2] However, since 1935, scholars have debated whether or not the term refers to a type of sacrifice on the basis of a similar term, also spelled mlk, which means "sacrifice" in the Punic language.[3] This second position has grown increasingly popular, but it remains contested.[4] Among proponents of this second position, controversy continues as to whether the sacrifices were offered to Yahweh or another deity, and whether they were a native Israelite religious custom or a Phoenician import.

Well this is most intriguing. I doubt that American White Christians will be pleased to hear this at all. Bible strongly condemns practices associated with Moloch Bill Gates. You see, that's why you are an illiterate hick dumbfuck with the intellect comparable to a chipmunk. Instead of doing serious work, you do practices associated with Moloch, huh?

While I struggle to read and understand Prometheus Unbound of Percy Bysshe Shelley about the great god of Wisdom, Gentleness, and other Virtues, you are busy with Moloch an evil god from Hebrew Bible eh?

I am not impressed at all.

9. BILL GATES IS ONLY MY CONCERN BECAUSE HE DECIDED TO TARGET ME

No one told Bill Gates, "Oh Bill Gates, there is this man over in Allen Texas, why don't you assault him with all sorts of Evil Powers and destroy his body and mind and life?" He decided to do that himself. I know the little cunt very well by experience of more than a year. He is a miserable little intellectual midget with a strong penchant for harming people with all sorts of powers that are thoroughly evil and disreputable and despised by Christians and Muslims the world over. He is a total con man charlatan and his intellectual level is actually close to a malevolent little chipmunk. Do you really think that a great immortal genius like myself, who ought to be contemplating and doing great work with a $3.5 million pad in Mission District San Francisco surrounded by lovely ladies who adore my sophistication and charm, and reading The Lovesong of J. Alfred Prufrock and gazing deep into the eyes of various lovely ladies and speaking of Michelangelo and hyacinths and how I could not speak and knew nothing and such would be writing about how a malevolent racial mass murderer who is a con man has targeted me for murder by all sorts of colourful Evil Magicks. Who in the world has time to learn all sorts of death curses and power of Moloch. This man obviously is totally unproductive. He has a giant library in Xanadu 2.0 but do you really think anyone enlightened about the history of human race, especially one who is obsessed with white pride and such would be more interested in Moloch or do you think that he might have been more interested in Shaftesbury? Does he even know who Shaftesbury is? Anthony Ashley Cooper, 3rd Earl of Shaftesbury (26 February 1671 –16 February 1713) was an English politician, philosopher, and writer. Now the third Earl Of Shaftesbury was a bright man, and I learned about him reading James Engell's The Creative Imagination. This Bill Gates is a peasant-born man but Shaftesbury was an aristocrat like myself and was interested in morals and virtues too. Do you think Shaftesbury would have impressed me at all if he was spending his time with death magic of Moloch?

The hick illiterate from podunk nowheresville, this Bill Gates is not the sort of white man Zulf respects. Zulf adores Percy Bysshe Shelley. Do you think that any respectable gentleman spends his life with Evil Magicks and harming and destroying people all their lives posing as a philanthropist. Think about that carefully. He's not worthy. He's a knave. He's not worthy at all.

10. AH, FRIEDRICH SCHILLER, A ROMANTIC GENIUS

How can these little miserable wretched illiterate hicks even begin to understand the great genius Friedrich Schiller. Obviously I, Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed, have read Schiller as you can see from my copy of his marvelous book. These scrubs from podunk boondocks like Bill Gates are unfortunately ill prepared for Schiller. His language is beautiful but most likely Bill Gates will consider all of Schiller 'British claptrap' like the Preamble to US Declaration of Independence. Bill Gates puny mind organises concepts slightly differently from aristocratic men of letters. Schiller's genius was so profound that even the great Friedrich Hölderlin who had an entire poem to honour him by Rainer Maria Rilke was reverent of him.

These trashy third rate intellectuals like Bill Gates who are liars and thieves, robbers and murderers, knaves, for them Schiller will not be appealing. It's better this way. They can get their deprived self-esteem being racial supremacists as many other intellectually deficient people do.

11. THANKS TO OFFICER REMY FROM FBI

Officer Remy thanks for the breakthrough. You got past some old 555 cigarettes where Bill Gates had put a very strong black magic fly thing that would kill me and you went into very hard meta he introduced in my deep interior. Wonderful job thanks. Always celebrate anything beyond your ordinary capability regularly and take a break and don't overexert yourself. I see this playing Starcraft II. It is exertion when I play Very Hard AI win or lose still because the body is not adjusted to it yet.

The hard meta disgusting things Bill Gates did will kill me if they are not addressed so I do appreciate the effort but alas you really need to destroy Bill Gates physically because he is a natural rights threat for 100 million people. The nation's government has a Constitutional mandate to eliminate threats to American people's natural rights like Bill Gates. Good luck and thanks.
