

BILL GATES I HAVE AN INFINITELY MORE CULTIVATED WESTERN MIND THAN YOU

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

I have personally vindicated Aristotle's Virtue-Eudaimonia theory on empirical data. I have personally established Universal Human Moral Nature overthrowing theories of Immanuel Kant and Friedrich Nietzsche. I have an actual Princeton Education. I have been reading Percy Bysshe Shelley from boyhood, and at Princeton I wrote term papers on Milton's Paradise Lost. I am still having sharper understanding of Enlightenment and Romantic thought. I have a great cultivation of the Modernists, not just James Joyce and Virginia Woolf and T. S. Eliot but also Hermann Broch and Robert Musil. I have had lovers including a wonderful Danish woman for years.

Do you think your comments like "Rilke just threw words together" and "Hammurabi was white" and "White people and black people's happiness are anti-correlated" and "Scientific theories are arbitrary" show any promise as a Western Mind worth a dime?

I am infinitely better cultivated in my Western Mind than you are Bill Gates. Don't flatter yourself. Your mind is illiterate, hick, and worthless in any serious intellectual level.
