

REMINDER TO THE WORLD FEBRUARY 9 2022 THAT BILL GATES SABOTAGED MY EARNINGS BUT I SUPERIOR TO HIM

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED
ZULFIKAR.AHMED@GMAIL.COM

This note is my reminder to the world that although Bill Gates has successfully blockaded my earning of $620 million using the things that his puny intellect could think of doing, mostly destructive black magic, US War Power and US Industrial Power in my Deep Interior, White Racial Power employed destructively and criminally, and using his cronies to humiliate me in front of my family members, and threatening my health and life by esoteric means, this game is far from over.

I am superior to Bill Gates in (a) intellect, and (b) Character and Virtues, and (c) in education, (d) in aristocratic bloodline and therefore I will obviously expect to destroy him in the end. He is inferior, and inferior criminal malevolent people like him are in the end unable to best people like me. My achievements, Four-Sphere Theory, and Universal Human Moral Nature, Vindication of Aristotle with Empirical Data and others are infinitely superior to what he has accomplished in his entire life from 1955-2022.

I am a far greater man than he can hope to become in 20,000 lifetimes, an immortal genius while he is just an illiterate hick amoeba, worthless, wretched criminal, whose paltry achievements only allow a modicum of pity for the lack of talent.

Not everyone can be the real thing, the real Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed. Bill Gates is infinitely inferior to me.

Let us admire Zulf's Virtues and contemplate how Bill Gates is a lying conniving robber and an intellectual charlatan without any talent at all who lied even about his SAT score.

1. ONCE AGAIN BILL GATES REVEALS HIS INFERIOR INTELLECT AND JUDGMENT

First, he ought to have surveyed democratic political opinion of the American people to test if his White World Order is legitimately feasible. He was a failure in high school in American Government and History and so he botched that with the idea of foisting a White Dominated World Order on an unsuspecting world, and many many Americans have had family members go off to fight the Nazis during the Second World War.

Now he is trying to use his wealth sabotaging my entire income of $620 million from Finance by all manner of illegitimate power moves– he succeeded in this so far – to sabotage the success of my four-sphere theory while he is a dipshit who does not know physics from a carrot stick. Obviously he will fail because physicists only care about accuracy of Nature and my four-sphere theory has the attention of Lee Smolin one of the top theoretical physicists already.

He revealed too quickly by screwing me over for something that made the little cunt money. He put in $2 billion with D.E. Shaw & Co. into my hard work while simultaneously plotting to murder me by illegitimate power maneuvers, cutting into my meta with Black Magic and US War Power and invading my Deep Interior with US Industrial Power. This allowed me to infer more than a year ago that he was not of good breeding, that he was of peasant stock and that is why he has totally vile criminal morals.

He has no chance whatever to sabotage my four-sphere theory because I am a genuine immortal physics genius while he is an inferior intellect inferior charlatan who pretends to be a luminary but is an idiotic moronic dipshit without a goddam college degree.

His political acumen is so puny that I pushed Unity of Asia, Eurasian Defense and he is still trying to convince Stanford Professors in 2022 that they ought to abandon all enlightenment and education and join his horrible savage beastly tribal war to rape and murder all non-white people.

Stupid son of a bitch will be totally destroyed.

2. WELL US AND WORLD PHYSICISTS OUGHT TO DO WHATEVER THEY DO BEFORE I DIE

This malevolent lowlife worthless miserable evil barbaric savage cunt who is a pathogen and parasite on the world, this Bill Gates has penetrated my Blood Meta and Deep Interior and started using Conquest and Enslavement and other horrible meta for no reason. My life and health and American Dream and earning are all put in peril. Whatever US Physicists and World Physicists have to do, do it now. I had no idea that these parasitic evil butchers were running amok in the United States with US Government supporting them instead of eliminating them with extreme lethal force.

Anyway, four-sphere theory is the final theory of Nature for all phenomena $\delta = 10^{-15}$ cm roughly and in the next trillion years no theory at all can compete with it because it is truth.

3. WHO DOES THIS BILL GATES THINK HE IS?

This charlatan Bill Gates is not even high school educated in Mathematics. I have significant training from Princeton University 1991-1995 in Mathematics and I am sharpening my skills with Stanford Ph.D. Quals exams. How does a man who has done no serious mathematical work at all in his entire life, and prattles about menial eighth grade Mathematics, who has not even attempted to solve any serious Mathematical Analysis problem which requires years of refinement, even hope to reach any significant level at all. His Whites Are Superior campaign is totally absurd. Ethnicity is going to produce great mathematicians? Is the United States Government serious? You thought this dipshit was a prodigy? He talks about eighth grade competition in Mathematics in Washington State.

Let's look at his record in Mathematics. Where is it?

You think this is very impressive? A sycophant writing about a trivial menia problem?

That semester, Gates was fascinated with a math problem called pancake sorting: How can you sort a list of numbers, say 3-4-2-1-5, by flipping prefixes of the list? You can flip the first two numbers to get 4-3-2-1-5, and the first four to finish it off: 1-2-3-4-5. Just two flips. But for a list of n numbers, nobody knew how to do it with fewer than $2n$ flips. Bill came to me with an idea for doing it with only $1.67n$ flips. We proved his algorithm correct, and we proved a lower bound—it cannot be done faster than $1.06n$ flips. We held the record in pancake sorting for decades. It was a silly problem back then, but it became important, because human chromosomes mutate this way.

[2]. Is this for real? I proved original theorems in Several Complex Variables that were publishable using techniques from Bedford and Pinchuk and Hörmander's functional analysis and won the prize for the most original thesis of my graduating class at Princeton when I graduated magna cum laude. You think this cat is 'the smartest person you ever met'? You clearly have not met really smart people.

4. LET ME TELL YOU WHAT BILL GATES DOES NOT UNDERSTAND ABOUT THE DIFFICULTIES OF MATHEMATICS SO HE IS GLIB

You see, I am raising my skills in Analysis. Analysis is not the hardest part of Mathematics. That is Number Theory. Number Theory is seriously hard and quite deep in development. But Analysis is contemplation of Nature, and it is contemplation of Nature when continuum is introduced. Without proper reverence for Nature, no one develops in Analysis. Bill Gates concepts of 'smartest guy in the room' and other rubbish belongs in the streets, and not in the Monastery of contemplation of Nature and infinity. You see, you take an elementary course or two and you say, this is easy, look at all these simple theorems. You apply dominated convergence here. Then you use the formula over there. What's the big deal? The big deal is that these are all things that began with confusion and there are strange things. There is the Baire Category Theorem that allows you to prove strange facts like ones that appear in Stanford Mathematics Ph.D. Exam. To appreciate how strange this world is you have to remember that Man was not equipped to learn anything much about Nature at all. Henri Lebesgue's Theory of integration allows you to do a little dance here and there and suddenly you have established something that is totally strange and true and mysterious. If you prance around all day long with notions of ethnic superiority all day long instead of paying attention to the strange and wondrous truths that are discovered in mathematics, how will you have any development in understanding.

$$\frac{1}{1-x} = \sum_n x^n$$

I am not impressed with all this talk of smartest this and smartest that. I know how difficult it is to understand things at all, especially when no one is sure whether something is true. You really think arrogant repetition of triva-trivia-trivia that charlatans like Bill Gates repeat will solve any serious problems? They will not. It takes years of effort of people literally ten times smarter than Bill Gates to make progress in serious issues. And they are not as arrogant as him. They are much better people. This man should be totally destroyed and his assets ought to be repossessed. He is an illiterate hick huckster and 100% charlatan without any intellectual genius at all.
