

SPECIAL REQUEST TO ENGLISH ROYAL MENDERS

Dear English Royal Menders,

I know that you are English and you like tradition and history and would rather attempt to mend all my Bengali Aristocratic meta. Don't worry about preserving those. Fate brought me to America and Fate cultivated me to Western education and values. I need something a little special.

So you need to be Creative here. You see I am an Archangel with many thousands of lives in many thousands of Angelic Worlds just like Earth. In many of them I am revered and would gain a lovely reception. But not all lives were as successful as all others.

There have been worlds where I was quite bold and announced that I was an Archangel of Heaven and I had great gifts for the Race and I was less than successful and the entire Race would be quite bitter, resentful and would love to slaughter me even if I were a newborn babe. I don't know which ones they are in the map of the Universe, which Galaxy and so on. But I will be able to know after I die.

The point is that I am quite aware that when an Archangel of Heaven is born in a World, as I was on Earth, he creates a certain set of expectations about what things will be better and what are the gifts of Heaven. Well when I had not delivered my promises to some Worlds, there have been some resentment and feelings of betrayal of trust and I avoid being born on them because they have not gained sufficient levels of Forgiveness for Zulf yet and I would rather avoid them.

Anyway, so I need some English type meta, something that will allow me to succeed as Archangel on Earth and deliver some of these Heavenly gifts for my beloved people the Human Race. I was an English knight after Richard the Lionheart died in 1199, and I am not convinced that Human Race is exactly the Forgiving kind. I'd rather have the option of returning one day to Earth and not be slaughtered for failure to deliver. You're English, so you understand I am sure. It's not pleasant when people are unhappy and do not want you to even remotely return to their World.
