

WHITE PEOPLE IN AMERICAN GOVERNMENT UNDERESTIMATE MY CAPABILITIES

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

No, this is not a racial issue. You might indeed underestimate my capabilities for silly reasons, such as 'he's not white, he's not from European Aristocratic line or a Mayflower elite. He's from a poor contry. So his leadership qualities are poor.' You are 1.4 million and I cannot guess.

What you do not realise is that I am from Vedic Aristocratic lineage of three thousand years, and my father never left Bengal to immigrate to America at all. He visited us in New York twice. I asked him why he does not move to America. He said well it's not my country, I serve Bengali people. He was dedicated with all his heart and soul to serve the Bengali people. I was already turning towards a Western mindset from when I was a young boy. I could moonwalk in baggy pants during Live Aid in 1985 and do it quite well. I was shot at 11 before moving to America, and so I did not get as much into the vibrant parts of American youth culture, mostly white, as I might have. I was introverted and studious and habituated to it. Eventually I accepted the entire human race as my people. Probably the death of my father had the effect, as I perhaps thought it would be a way to honour his dedication. I just expanded my people to all human beings.

What makes you think you can serve even the American People as well as I can serve the entire human race? There is more to this than arbitrary decision. I could be the Once and future King of the entire Human Race right from the second floor den office of mine in 915 Meadowgate Drive Allen Texas 75002 while my aunt is denigrating me all day. How will you compete with me? Do you all have three thousand years of Aristocratic blood? I doubt it. You are foolish, white people in American Government. You think Bill Gates will even reach any level of leadership of vast populations that can match mine when my father and grandfather served more than a hundred million Bengalis all their lives and his grandfather was a furniture merchant serving himself? Don't be silly. I am a far greater leader of the entire world than all of you combined.
