

ZULF'S OPEN LETTER TO BILL GATES

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED
ZULFIKAR.AHMED@GMAIL.COM

Bill Gates,

You are one of the worst criminals, the vilest, most disgusting, pathological liars, swindlers, con men, and fake charlatans, one of the most vile habitual murderers, lawless savage malevolent primitive beasts and evil people in the world.

And at the same time, you have lost everything that you have built all your life, everything.

You have risked all that you are, that you had been, against someone you did not even meet once in person.

This is true tragedy Bill Gates. It is such profound and mythological tragedy that even the fantasy writers in Hollywood would not put it on screen.

You see, I am in a much stronger position than you, so you will lose and winner will take all. You will lose your Empire, your popularity, your dignity and respect, and even most of your history as your true colours reveal themselves to the world and your "PR PR" lies become matters of humour.

I am much much stronger than you because I am actually an intellectual genius who has pursued pure aims, and there are no flaws in my four-sphere theory, and my ideas are actually great ideas to transform the world for the better.

Vagaries of fate and deep character flaws deep within your soul conspired in your fall. It's a marvelous moral cautionary tale, and all dramatists ought to take note of the rise and fall of Bill Gates as a tragedy whose artistic merits are profound.

I feel bad for you sonny boy. But alas my life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness trump your lurid interests.

Better luck next time, eh?

1. FOR OTHER PEOPLE THAN BILL GATES: POLITICAL ISSUES

Bill Gates, as I have gotten to know him intimately and against my will for more than a year because of his refusal to leave my meta despite warnings from Finance, Government, Universities, Law, everyone is that he believes that (a) he is the de facto monarch of United States, (b) that he has 'right of conquest' and enslavement and that murder is the norm in business and black magic is bread and butter, (c) everything he has ever said in public speech is false because of a "PR" norm where people always deliberately lie, (d) that whites are superior which I hear from him incessantly, and his total contempt for natural rights of all people which he wants to remove permanently and sink all non-white nations into colonialism and re-enslave blacks and zone the country for white supremacy and so on.

The key is that politically he does not even represent the racially defined whites, the 15% of white people who define their identity based on their ethnicity, and not only the norm of racial laws of 1940s, but ideas that I don't think existed in the world after roughly sixth century BC. He considers himself to have been involved in a war for racial dominance all his life, and considers his destruction of my life and career prospects and success in America as a grave need for various sorts of white pride agenda. These are not representing any political faction in democratic political spectrum in America as even the far right in America will find right to kill all men women and children and enslaving them to be too alien. Perhaps Agamemnon and Menelaos in The Iliad might find it plausible but these things have been considered savage, barbaric, and not belonging to any part of civilisation long before Britain even colonised any part of the world, and we are past United Nations age, where international law is strongly natural rights oriented.

I am astounded that such a barbaric, vile worthless, wretched, disgusting, filthy, murderous savage barbaric primitive hick illiterate charlatan as Bill Gates was found worthy of support in being a great captain of industry. He does not even belong in a solitary jail cell. He does not belong alive on Earth at all frankly. But he certainly does not belong cutting up non-white eyes and sabotaging our American Dream and career and livelihood and health. What sort of rubbish is this? This is outrageous and intolerable for every man of Conscience and Civilisation from Europe to Japan and everywhere in America. Why is this man free to cause harm to people arbitrarily. He is a thoroughly evil vile criminal murderer who endangers natural rights of 300 million Americans. Why did American Government consider him valuable at all?

2. BILL GATES 1970S HACKING IS NOT SERIOUS TALENT AS CODER

Bill Gates was apparently a competent hacker of 1960s-1970s equipment. I am a coder, and I don't consider Bill Gates competent enough in software development to get a menial job today. You see I learned coding at Lehman Brothers on serious Finance Quant work. Most of what is seriously difficult about coding is complexity management on languages that are far more high level and problems that are much more sophisticated than 1960s hackers can deal with.

3. BILL GATES WAS EXTRAORDINARILY MURDEROUS FROM EARLY YEARS AND I AM NOT JOKING ABOUT WHAT OUGHT TO HAVE HAPPENED

White people are dangerous to the world because they coddle and get sensitive about the worst criminals in the world like Bill Gates while they continuously think extremely genocidal treatment of non-whites is mandates. Bill Gates is much worse than any Auschwitz butcher and ought to have been aborted before even poisoning this world with his foul existence. He does not belong alive.

4. YOUR 1970S SKILLS WITH DINKY CPU ARE OBSOLETE BILL GATES

Look, Bill Gates, I am much more refined coder than you will be in ten million years. In 2018 I got an A out of A+ with Codility. I know Design And Evolution Of C++ inside out and coded in C++ from 1995, and I can make arbitrary things work in python in the cloud in moments with some ssh libraries and tweaking with AWS. I have top quality code in Meteor. Show us you code you miserable son of a bitch. You can't even read the goddam manual of a contemporary Intel or AMD processor. You're not very good you stupid scumbag.

5. YOU'RE A DEAD BUG SPLATTERED ON A WINDSHIELD BILL GATES

You really thought you would be able to make a White Order big move by assaulting Zulf? Well now you're a dead bug splattered on the windshield Bill Gates. I'm an immortal genius you little shit. You should have just tried to be sneaky. Now the whole world knows about your little plan. And the next World Order will be Natural Rights World Order. You see, you did so much harm to me that now the United States will have to totally destroy and dispossess you in the end to keep the nation from being delegitimised because no one in the world will tolerate any nation that allows so much harm to one their own, so my USCIS# 046-077-179 is ticket to a dead bug wiped out on the windshield sonny boy. You're history. You're finished. You're a goner. Bye bye. I'll have to do this for a bit longer but it's about time. Calamity awaits you. And these stupid fucks thinks I would deign to go around and use all sorts of sniper rifles. It won't be me doing this. When Asia fully consider what you have done to me, they will consider it a rational decision to wipe out the United States for the sake of safety of 4.5 billion Asian people's natural rights and future. Then it will be your cronies in United States Government that scramble to wipe you out of existence and turn your little empire into powder and scatter it in the Pacific Ocean sonny boy.
