Asia,

I want you to pay close attention. This is my lecture on global hegemonic power. First of all, never Seek global hegemonic power. Always seek benevolence and care and natural rights and well-being for all human beings. Got that? When you do that right you will be granted global hegemonic power by Nature. If you seek those things you will slip on a banana and break all your bones. Never ever Seek global hegemonic power. That's something you get if you are taking care of people's well-being.

Second, if you are global hegemonic power, never be cheesy and immature. Don't say "I'm such and such and I have insolence of office and I'll show these people proud man's contumely and law's delay." That's not the way this game is played.

Instead realise that given all possible costs, kowtowing is cheap and easy and not a big deal. So kowtow a lot. Kowtow here and kowtow there and kowtow everywhere and keep your pride for your girlfriend during sex, not in public. In public kowtow away.

Now you know the secret. Got that?
