

ZULF'S FEBRUARY 15 2022 RATIONALITY STATEMENT

United States Of America is my country, and I respect its laws and I am an Asian-American and I don't break laws and follow my American Dream. But United States Government does not seem to comprehend basic rationality. You see, the reason it is reasonable to pay taxes and have all sorts of "Say can you see in the dawn's early light" and nationalist rara is the promise in US Declaration of Independence Preamble that we hold the truth that governments are instituted among men to secure Life, Liberty and pursuit of Happiness. I am totally aware of which comes before which, and United States Government officials are a little foggy. You see, given that the government is actually securing my natural rights do I even give two shits about whether the United States Of America exists tomorrow or sinks into the Pacific Ocean. I am fifty years old. What do you take me for? You think all the rara national loyalty matters even a tiny bit if you're not going to secure my natural rights. No you can take your loyalty expectations and shove it where the sun don't shine, sonny boy, if you dare to demand those things without securing my natural rights first. It's not for free. You think I will die like a lemming, like a fool, and worry about your existence when you don't give a damn about my Life, Liberty, and pursuit of Happiness? Which state did you go to elementary school, huh? The State of Delusion?
