

I AM NOT IMPRESSED WITH WHITE PEOPLE IN AMERICAN GOVERNMENT: MORAL DEGENERATES

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

These White People in American Government are total moral degenerates. They pretend that someone they know has been engaged in racial murders for four decades needs all manner of reservations to kill, but they kill innocent people with drone strikes all over Asia without any concern. Such morally degenerate rotten people this world does not need. A reasonable source tells us the 2011 total deaths [1]. It is 456-661. This has been going on since 2001, when no hijackings by any Muslim militant and a sabotage operation by Israel triggered pre-planned wars. Let's do rough analysis, assuming the range represents a normal distribution roughly

$$N(\mu = 560, \sigma = 50)$$

Simple independent model gives us a rough estimate of distribution over 20 years.

$$N(\mu = 11200, \sigma = 223)$$

That might be a vast under or overestimate but it's a rough estimate. So these white people in American Government become extremely nervous about killing a racial mass murder but randomly selects 11,200 people who have very little proof of doing anything at all and just kills them without habeas corpus or any civilised protection. Now that is morally outrageously degenerate. I am not impressed by these people at all. It's unclear whether they know what a criminal is, who deserves to live and who deserves to die, and so on. I am quite worried about these sorts of people. They might just be a den of murderous criminals. I mean they might wear tie and look like they are ordinary people but I am very concerned that they might not actually be civilised at all in reality. I am too old to judge people by their clothes and their looks.

1. WHITE PEOPLE IN AMERICAN GOVERNMENT ARE A PROBLEM

Thus far, I am not impressed with white people in American Government. They do not do any work that ensures natural rights at home adequately, and they are quite trigger happy with random people in Asia without any serious evidence and murder them using drones. They are a problem. Even Nazis did not do these things in 1930s in Germany. This is a grave serious threat to the human race. I want them contained right away.
