

ZULF'S SPECULATIONS ABOUT WHY BILL GATES IS ADAMANT ABOUT MYSELF NOT SUCCEEDING

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

In a world of eight billion, you could wonder why Bill Gates would be obsessed about ensuring that I do not succeed and am destroyed. I did not know Bill Gates from a can of tomato soup. I never met the man personally. Two years ago I did not think about him at all. I had many years in industry in senior positions, in technology, in finance, and in science. I am 49, and am an immortal genius. I am a great man, a genius in what I have accomplished, extremely well educated, virtuous, just and good.

I think the reason why Bill Gates is obsessed about destroying me is simple. I am so far superior to him, in intellect, in virtues, in talents, in cultivation, in mathematics, in fashion taste, that envy drove him mad.

It so happens that he was a career hateful racial murderer as well, and so he is tying his ego to his ability to destroy me.

These things happen, but I am immortal and my genius is so much higher than his, my immortality so eternal, that he has nowhere to go but extinction. He is not worthy of me, and he wants to be considered great.

The trouble is that he is a hick illerate charlatan whose lifetime accomplishments are so much more inferior to mine that it is clear that he has no chance at competing with me.
