

AMERICAN DIPLOMATS YOU ARE ON YOUR OWN BABY CUPCAKES

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Now American Diplomats, you thought I was not American because you believed unreliable sources, while I have had Permanent Residency from 1997. Then you thought I was Muslim because you assumed that you could infer it from my name alone. Then you assume that Bill Gates is very important for American Industry and American Business without actually asking them.

Well, you are on your own, baby cupcakes. You see, when I see people who do everything wrong without sufficient care, I fear for taking responsibility for you. I don't like to trust my good name on people who make so many errors. Whatever you do, I will disavow any participation because bad things will happen and I am washing my hands off responsibility for your various – surely even more disastrous – decisions and actions.
