

CIVILISATION IN ZULF'S AMERICA INITIAL STEPS

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

1. ZULF'S AMERICA IS THE REAL AMERICA FROM 33 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE

The Real America, in the end, is Zulf's America. In the last century, a Frenchman, Alexis de Toqueville, was one of the most profound perceptive analysts of America. And then there is the photography of Robert Frank. Robert Frank was a Swiss photographer who had some of the greatest post-war photography in his The Americans. He was American by life. And I, Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed, born in Bengal, am also American, and I have been toying with the idea of "Zulf's America" for many years, and I want to begin telling you about my America, the Real America.
