

US GOVERNMENT SHOULD ONLY KILL BILL GATES WITH EXCESSIVE SPECTACLE

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

US Government, if you go after Bill Gates it is an extremely dangerous error to do it sneakily and surreptitiously and cautiously. If you do that United States of America will be permanently crippled. Never ever take on Traitors like Bill Gates sneakily.

Instead evacuate all his properties and then use hundreds of jet planes and helicopter gunships and just use excess amounts of firepower to destroy all his houses, yachts, businesses and totally obliterate his body.

The backreaction will actually be extremely quiet.

You see, I have lived in many Republics in past lives. Republics do these things to shore up their fundamental principles.

So take these characteristics of Bill Gates.

- Total disregard for US Law
- Plotting to rule the world as Secret Emperor of White Race
- Total contempt for multiple ethnicities living in harmony and demand for re-colonisation and re-enslavement

These are enough to wipe him out for you. Do it not sneakily but with exceeding amount of Spectacle. That is your best bet. It will wipe out White Supremacy, get rid of one of the most evil criminals this world has ever produced. And it's great for the country. Bill Gates is not necessary for US Economy at all.
