

ZULF CONSIDERS A NEW MYTHOLOGY FOR BILL GATES

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Bill Gates is a literal Demon embodied in human body. But I like imaginative mythology too, ones that are fictional. I am pleased to see that US Executive Branch is taking minute details of procedures against racial guys with Bill Gates. They are doing these minute steps now.

So let me tell you this myth. Millions of years ago, there was a Mermaid in the Oceans of Fate between the Galaxies. Her name was Pandora, and she was beautiful and had beautiful eyes, dark and vibrant. And one day she was swimming deep near the ocean floor and she found hidden under water a strange sort of treasure chest. It had all sorts of runes and other writings. She was not able to decipher the things. Well we know more than her about the runic alphabet so we could see it said 'extreme danger and depraved criminality handle with caution'. But she was bold and adventurous and so she wanted to see what was in it.

The moment she opened it suddenly dark fumes escaped from it and she fainted from the shock. The fumes they spiralled just like smoked and swam away from Pandora. Then time went on and the fumes transformed into a spirit that is pure depraved criminality and the spirit wanted to live in some body.

It searched across the universe for millions of years and then one day it was born in 1955 as a white boy in Seattle. And that's the myth of Bill Gates.

1. SERIOUS VIEW

I sincerely do not believe that there is a single thing about Bill Gates that he has projected to the world in five decades has any substance to it. He is a pathological liar and what the public knows about Bill Gates is pure unmitigate fiction. There is not even an iota of redeeming qualities to him. His totally fake. He has a self-promotion video, for example, where he takes off some weeks for 'think time' and shows that he is diligently studying Enlightenment Now of Steven Pinker. Well I can assure the world that in reality he does not have the intellectual capacity to understand anything in that book. In reality he thinks 'Natural Rights are claptrap' and has been plotting a White Racial Order that is more dystopian than what the Nazis were planning and he does no 'kowitz to American law'. In reality he is a tacky hick illiterate man without a college degree who is a total poser and does not actually read many books at all but projects an intellectual genius. He is not an intelligent man at all. He says 'scientific theories are arbitrary' and 'Hammurabi was white' and other illiterate stupid rubbish. There is nothing but depraved criminality behind his fictional image.
