

A TRAGIC END FOR BILL GATES

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Inferior charlatans and evil people like Bill Gates should not be taking on people like myself. I am a serious man, a good man, and a far greater man than him. It's tragic, what Bill Gates has done. He has harmed me and forced me to wipe him out of existence. He had a deathwish. Weaker souls like himself should not do these things. Now he's gone, erased from the future altogether, like the silly fading photographs in Back To The Future. He's already fading out of existence. His puny $130.5 billion is simply not enough when he goes against myself, Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed. He'll be totally wiped out of existence, from annals of history. And he was fake all his life, so no one will remember who he really was because he was all image, all projection, and purely evil inside. It's sad. He'll just vanish out of existence. Very sad. Very tragic.
