

JULIA NOVEMBER 30 2021

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

The main themes of this conversation, in hindsight revolved around the issue of sanctions for sexual disloyalty. I have not negotiated this with any woman before explicitly, but I think my method of doing a cold-hearted no apologies-no forgiveness two minute dissolution upon sexual betrayal is a reasonable approach with otherwise no suspicions and interrogations that limit freedom.

what is all this for America :? they want White American rule of Earth. World Domination you want to say that they will get to Ukraine and Russia?
Asia is their target. They will keep containing Russia. They destroyed Soviet Union eventually Russia is a strong state well not strong enough if they managed to push Russia. Russia is lucky that China loves Russia you say that America pushed Russia? what does it mean?
Russian economy is tiny compared to United States. $1.5T versus $23T. China is $15T so then Russia-China alliance is necessary for Russia
I am now arranging a plan to produce alliance of Germany, France, England, Russia, China and Japan That will stall any Genocide plan I always thought that such a rich state as Russia can be afraid of nothing, there is gas and other minerals, plus there is a huge territory an alliance of Germany, France, England, Russia, China and Japan? how will it be useful? well it's relative. Russia's economy is smaller than India's. India is $2.6 T Russia $1.5T My alliance plan will put Washington in its place As far as I know, America has big debts. This is true? does not matter. America controls global reserve so their debt is not a problem. US Treasury bonds are the risk free debt of the world so all people lend to America to keep money safe America can afford to have $50T debt without problems because they control global reserve currency the American government is very smart how do you want to implement your alliance plan? just keep pushing by emails to United Nations that that's what I want Date: November 30, 2021.

And scare all of Asia about White Supremacist Genocide and extort England in various ways i love England, but I am Zulf, If England does not give me what I want I will make England's life miserable I think it will be a long way maybe I don't care. I am Bengali ethnic American and Bill Gates hurt me with English meta. I'll blackmail England till Kingdom Come
 and how are you blackmailing England? just telling them that if they don't give me what I want then I'll ask India and China and Japan to consider, find that English meta was used and then make England pay reparations for breaking large number of treaties so all their money goes to Bengal forever this is a multi-level move !! brilliant!
 England's GDP is $3.2T that's a nice juicy amount to go to Bengal till forever ends you see England ruled Bengal for four centuries till 1947 and Bengal and England are friends now. Elizabeth became Queen in 1952 so she did a good job I couldn't even imagine how much money it was, I've never heard such numbers well don't get scared. I am Finance I am used to those types in Finance Blackrock MANAGES $7T. The managers get money but they get a tiny slice of total amounts they manage people who do not understand that the money is not theirs get thrown out of Finance really really fast where did you work before?
 Lehman Brothers in 1995. Gresham Investments in 2007 what did you do there?
 I was a quant in Finance all my career. At Gresham VP but research spots. I am an expert in Quant Finance this is something new for me Zulf, every day I like you more and more did I upset you with my words? no i had to write a letter sharing OK
 julia how are you darling?
 I'm good dear. How are you? i am studying what is known about intimate partner violence. often the man is prince charming for a period and something goes wrong. this is really fascinating issue then the woman believes love conquers all and fails to change anything this is a very difficult situation, I think. often people try to preserve what is already absent i will think about this more. i will have a breakthrough after some months. i asked england for some things. darling you should talk to other potential suitors that is fine and i do not feel right about holding you to my uncertainty in finances ok?

I like talking to you, why do I need other suitors? well you want family and love and respect and those for me will be contingent on uncertain wait. also i do not know how you feel about moving without further english education I can learn ... it's not a problem good. be relaxed. don't get caught in a story in your mind about how you think things ought to be and things will be reasonable in the end a day ago it's important for me a day ago tell me exactly what is important for you the more you open yourself in words the more it will allow us to be better friends darling you are important to me .. i like to chat with you well we only are getting to know each other still. i want you to have perspective. i am not a dream in your mind. i am a real man with real difficulties and real ambitions and hopes of my own listen to "old money" of lana del rey I take my time ... I always think about every step I take that is very good. and what are your thoughts?
I need time to weigh the pros and cons take as long as you need for those. otherwise you will be unhappy and things will go wrong.
do not cross continents on a whim. have clear understanding of what you can live with ok dear i will do so that is very important. any lack of clarity will produce turbulence for you and your romantic partner too do you feel only friendship for me? well i like you. self-disclosure is the way to form bonds. do you know the social penetration theory? briefly, the levels of intimacy are reached slowly layer by layer like onions i am willing to consider inviting you to stay with me in san fran and see how things work out for us I would like that yes relax and dont worry about things ok? if things are meant to be good they will. i am a good man. i don't do whirlwind romances that will leave your life crashed into the rocks if things go wrong.
well i did do those. i don't do those any more ok? ok i trust you you can trust me to be myself ok? i will not pay for a lot of expensive courses etc. i am a serious man and i am only able to produce good outcome if you agree to live with me and have deeper understanding of yourself and fine tune your own inner world.
i will always treat you with respect and like a lady no matter what.
but with me you have to take yourself seriously. i need to be able to trust you to be strong as well love is hard. be always open with your honest feelings especially when they are not good.

ok?

I feel like I like you I like listening to you you are most charming dear. but really love is much harder than you would think. it requires effort and dedication to go higher in love. it's not automatic for anyone most people reach very low levels of love and don't know that there is much more

listen to "all i need is you"

U2

I'll listen now, dear

i want you to immerse yourself and understand these songs they are all about you

I like these songs

they are window into inner worlds you see. you need to slowly understand what is your deep heart. it is okay if they are far from the practical world but not so far that you cannot return to the social world when you meet someone you like you take small steps in them a good lover is someone who gives you a safe way, a bad lover is one who is a predator in your inner world do you understand this?

I need to reflect on this i could be a bad lover for you too. that is why you have to take small steps

i am used to women who are comfortable with their body and sexuality. are you?

I like me) and body and completely in everything good. do you enjoy sex with a man you lve or is it a tedious thing?

i have to ask because i hade a danish lover and she loved sex and i formed habits around her years ago

No, I love it) Tiring? Are there people who do not like this activity?

yes. many. good. sex is healthy natural part of a loving relationship and improves the mood and staves off depression. do you agree?

julia tell me your thoughts if you would not mind

I completely agree with you, intimacy is important, if there is none between people, then these are relationship problems and scandals due to dissatisfaction good. whatever christian guilt you have about sex totally erase them from your mind. sex is an expression of union between people WHO CARE ABOUT EACH OTHER. regular sex is healthy, good, and part of normal life.

if you move to be with me absolutely no sex allowed with any other man. if you cheat i will break up with you in two minutes well, for you, intimacy with other women will be prohibited right. if either one of us has sex with anyone else we break up in two minutes no forgiveness no apologies it's over i am not into complications of this type at all deal?

I agree with you and think the same i won't monitor and never worry about your day and night. make five million male friends i don't care. i will trust that you will be faithful to me in sex if we are together. flirt all you want if that is interesting but no sex see this is what is required for love. no monitoring. i am strict and don't look around to score. i stay faithful without effort i don't want all sorts of questions about where i have been and what women i spoke to. i will not have sex with anyone else if i tell you i won't it seems to me that flirting is also not appropriate if you have a couple well it's necessary for business sometimes. it's just life loyalty is now very rare it is and i am loyal and honourable. i don't like to feel constrained and i won't constrain you but it's no tears break up without any forgiveness if there is betrayal for real ok?
this is serious, i will not have jealous rage at all I will try not to provoke you you can provoke or not darling. one of the closest i have come to a soulmate in my actual life was sine jensen and when she left me i packed her bags and i took her to the airport to leave me. if i say i will leave you in two minutes i will leave you in two minutes if you have sex with another man that's IF we get together I agree with you, this is fair. Everything is as it should be. If it really happens, you have to leave well some other men like the complications. they like drama of this type. for me it means there is something so wrong that leaving is better than trying to fix serial monogamy with covert adultery is the norm in america, me i want a good happy love life. i don't need all manner of headaches
Is it the norm in America to cheat? well adultery and open relationships and cohabitation without any intention to marry ever all quite popular Got it. It seems normal to me, too. Not for me, I want to be serious.
But I think that if it suits others, there is nothing wrong. What do you think? this is an interesting issue. politically i am sexual libertarian. i do not want the laws to intrude in people's private lives at all. i don't get involved in other people's love lives at all. personally, i have a lot of conservative restrictions i don't want all sorts of riffraff in my own private life at all. i like good faithful lover. i want strong virtuous character in myself and my partner so i don't really get in the business of other people's decisions at all. i don't even give a damn if they love and marry small white goats

I like your attitude. It's good that you're not the kind of person who fixates on the lives of others. But you want seriousness, which is more to my liking.

How do you imagine your relationship?

well love is important and i value it and i do not choose third rate ladies. i expect tha my private life to be exceptionally high i imagine effort to have extremely solid relationship that is civilised.

i like to have time for tea and good high culture i like effort for regular dining together and time for poetry and movies together i am always kind and respectful to other people and do not get involved in judging their love lives

Third-class women? How is that?

i won't go into that. women who are not interested in cultivating themselves at all, women who lie, women who are materialistic and not interested in art and literature and philosophy, culture

I get it. Do you divide men in the same way?

i am an ivy league educated aristocratic man in a lineage that goes back to 1750 BC vedic india. i am extremely cultivated and elitist. i am not sexist. i see great character in women and men.

see i never mistreat people at all and am not arrogant at all to people. that is part of being refined ok that is important lesson. truly refined and noble people do not look down on people. looking down on people is not refined and high enough well my line goes back to vedic royalty that is hindu. my father k. m. ahmed was prominent in bengal in civil service but my influences were english and i am 100% american

Are you interested in the culture of your relatives?

i am Western in my values darling. i spent 34 years in America and my values are European more English but I am also influenced strongly by Siddhartha Gautama spiritually.

Have you ever lived in another country?

just america. i have traveled to South America and Europe where did you like it best?

San Francisco my eternal spiritual home

Why? What do you like so much about it?

it was the city founding United Nations, and the weather and the wonderful energy is even better than Mediterranean coast it is such an optimistic city filled with hope for humanity and the food is just gorgeous. it's really beautiful

A city filled with hope for humanity?

yes. it is a truly wonderful city to serve human race of 8 billion this is part of my propaganda propaganda for what?
to show bill gates is smaller than pinky finger of buddha In that sense. Not a bad point, but you don't get it right away. At least many people don't think there is any sense at all. A lot of people look at it superficially. well i have notes explaining it. don't worry. i am the master at belittling him how is your mood darling?
Okay, I'm making a snack. How about you?
i fell asleep Zulf, I'm glad you rested. what did you dream of?
dreams are not working normally since i am accosted by Bill Gates power
I liked the photo with the buddha yesterday, are there any other similar ideas?
i have a large number of things. but i am proposing a $4 trillion global plan to assist men with moral virtues globally and want to keep focus on this intimate partner violence problem. i believe in two decades it can go down to 0.1% from 10% average with some effort
I'm curious to know your plan. the plan is to estimate how much money will lead to results. the people who can approve the money are not experts on doing the work. they have to produce institutions and then social scientists can do the details but i realised that i have to keep emailing United Nations with the plan and the amount for it to go anywhere Well, are you going to write a plan now? i wrote a short draft and emailed it already. d details are unimportant. the main idea is the main idea of the solution and time and money the key is to give hope, solution outline, scale of money and time. the problem is very serious this is cool! will you send it to me too? I also want to read it ok i am getting a better organised effort, I am asking now for a United Nations Human Virtue Program addressing both K-12 and Adult education with $4 trillion allocated do you want children to tell this from childhood? do you think they will understand?
well there are levels of sophistication but yes Virtue education is worthwhile
and how to cope with all the difficulties?
a man cultivated with virtue habituation does not lash out in violence very easily at all you see i understand what is happening. you have men who are not habituated to virtuous conduct. they might be nice men but they are not strong in their virtuous conduct. so when they face stress they do not have inner controls that are normal for virtuous men normally they do not get into problems maybe but they cannot handle the stress of relationships. they crack. they lash out in violence you are right internal control is very important in this matter. but there are other factors as well? right?

they are Hope, Gratitude, Zest, and Love in the Seligman classification. his "Love" is broad. Yes I value our conversations. i spent a lot of time with you so it is a pleasure to acknowledge that. I am a serious respectable man. i do not pretend to be someone other with other people than you

I also value our conversations very much and I am pleased to hear from you other factors do not matter. a man habituated to virtue will not commit violence with an intimate partner until she is a threat to his life you have to understand, most of these men would not even get into a fight in a bar when drunk. they are simply not habituated to virtue what do you mean by virtue?

justice, truthfulness, patience, persistence, classical virtues of aristotle. this is pre-Christian knowledge but i have great advances on them

I will be glad to know what are these successes?

well i have results that show they improve life satisfaction. i am making the bold bet that they will eliminate IPV as well

what is it?

Intimate Partner Violence

aaa, now I understand))) and what does the UN Security Council say about Bill Gates' plans?

they don't like it so they will disallow wars in Asia and how can this be done?

they are UN Security Council they can just veto it did they give you an answer?

no. these are massive institutions it's mostly one way it's a pity that the answers do not come, they can deceive you i don't care darling. i have to do what i have to do. i asked harvard law to monitor UN Security Council and if they don't veto all wars in Asia to rename them Asian Genocide Program do I worry about you?

that you can tell me. i am invoking Article 33 of UN Charter to accuse Bill Gates and United States Government of plotting to disrupt international peace and security as a service that's a great idea dear Zulf
