

BILL GATES DO YOU REALLY THINK SHOES AND RANDOM STACKS OF WOMEN AND REFUSE WILL STOP AN IMMORTAL GENIUS REACH HIS DESTINY?

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Bill Gates Pentagon finds shoes, random stacks of women from my past, refuse and rubbish, and other totally random things clogging my path so I cannot reach my $620 million and American Dream, go to San Francisco, invite a lover to have my family there in good pad, and work on things I have promised people like Christine Lagarde.

Penatagon is considering with their power, Bill Gates. Do you really think an immortal genius who, out of his great love for his beloved people the human race, preparing his gift of spectrum of virtues that will provide universal understanding for life satisfaction, surpassing Aristotle and Avicenna, will be scarred by the petty efforts of a malevolent and mean-spirited charlatan?

I am quite amazed Bill Gates. In poor villages in Bengal, the corner grocery and tea-stop where poor people socialise would consider what you are doing disreputable. Many white people are great people. You, alas, are not among them.
