

BILL GATES DESERVES BURNING AT STAKE NOT LETHAL INJECTION

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

In India, a malevolent evil Vampyric son of a bitch would be beaten and beaten and beaten and beaten by the public crowd and then have his body doused in gasoline and lit on fire and the police would not get involved. He's that sort of a man, and in his case, what Indian crowd would do is better than what we have done.

I don't want Bill Gates to be put to death by lethal injection. I want him burned at the stake. My physical body is bent and my health harmed by his shenanigans. I want him burned at the stake not just put to death in the ordinary way.
