

ZULF'S ELEMENTARY NOTES THAT WILL JUSTIFY BILL GATES IS A CRIMINAL

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

I am not a lawyer and have no degree in law or social sciences at all. I will seek forgiveness from my dear reader here for being slow. I do not aim in this note to be deep but simply precise and clear.

First, let me just examine the precise definition of the term 'criminal' so that I do not err and use the term in an inappropriate and informal manner. I look for some reasonable website to obtain this. Ah, Cornell Law School, good; Cornell is a great school and they should be reasonably good [1].

A "crime" is any act or omission in violation of a law prohibiting the action or omission.

This is the Cornell Law School formulation. I will then do some analysis of my own.

It is appropriate to call someone who violates law prohibiting some action. Before I get to the sorts of things that Bill Gates had done to earn my firm and certain and unapologetic characterisation as a born dyed-in-the-wool criminal, let me make disclosure of all the acts of criminal type for which I am responsible in 49 years of my life. I admit to (a) overstaying my visa to the United States between 1987-1991. The statute of limitations was five years and I was in the country with legitimate visa in 1996, and legitimate permanent residency since 1997. (b) Shoplifting a Cadbury bar in 1995 from the supermarket on Broadway and 110th street, and (c) shoplifting a deck of tarot cards from Barnes & Nobles on 5th Avenue and 18th Street (d) Sleeping after dusk in a park bench in 2008.

Bill Gates crimes are mostly using power meta and not directly physical. He used US War meta against my Body meta. This violated Geneva Conventions; Nuremberg laws prohibit harm to Body meta even for Prisoners of War. He breached my Blood Meta. He is a white man, and I am of Asian, specifically of Bengali background. White law and Christian law prohibits breaching blood meta of any non-white. He destroyed my interior, destroyed and mangled my Ancestral meta, destroyed and mangled my Romantic meta, introduced vile sexual meta into mine, and many other harms. He used Enslavement and Conquest meta on me. There are other things that I will not detail but he is the only person known in the world past or present who has invaded the Deep Interior of any person.

All of these are not just ordinary crimes but war crimes and crimes against humanity and UN Security Council's expert judges pronounced death penalty for him. I am not the first person he has harmed. He gloads proudly to US Security that he always attacked rivals in the eyes and destroyed them and pushed them to commit suicide.

Bill Gates is a criminal in a very very strong sense. He is a mass murderer who constantly confesses that he has been liquidating Americans since 1970s using US

Government power. He is not just a criminal but a mass murderer. His justification is a belief that 'big people' have the right to kill 'little guys'. This is an extremely dangerous hardened criminal. These sorts of beliefs, including his immunity to American Laws is the signature of an extremely dangerous criminal. United States Government ought to be held accountable for allowing such a man to live from 1970s.

Our Constitution includes US Declaration of Independence Preamble which I have invoked repeatedly for over a year. Our nation's laws stipulate that natural rights of individuals must be secured by the government, and so in America the criminal code is based on the basis of natural rights of the target. Not only have all my natural rights been violated, but he starved me of income in America. I want to ensure that American Federal Government is made to account for its right to exist as a legitimate government based on their behaviour in knowing full well that Bill Gates was committing crimes, knowing full well that they are the organisation designed to secure my natural rights, but refusing to bring Bill Gates to justice and destroying him physically.

1. I AM POLITICALLY EXTREME ZEALOT OF UNIVERSAL NATURAL RIGHTS SECURITY

Two decades ago, when I was around 29, in San Francisco I was zealous as a member of International Socialist Organisation. Two decades later, I am extremely zealous about Universal Natural Rights Security for eight billion people, agreeing with the founders of America, and writers of US Declaration of Independence Preamble. I consider Natural Rights of all human beings in all Continents sacrosanct and inviolable. Here I will take violations by the criminal Bill Gates to be sufficient reason to (a) whack him, (b) abolish and amend all of Federal Government of United States, (c) Change the World Order till natural rights of all my beloved people the Human Race are secured.

2. NO ONE WANTS BILL GATES RACIAL WORLD ORDER AND 80 PERCENT HUMANITY WANT NATURAL RIGHTS SECURITY

I will be quite open. Bill Gates wants a White America-ruled World Order. I know what he wants unfortunately extremely well in the past year that I had the misfortune to be accosted by him. I want a Natural Rights Security World Order. His World Order is not in demand. Mine is. Around 80 percent of Human Race wants Natural Rights (or 'human rights' by UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948 Parlance) wants natural rights security strengthened [2]. I am a man of great and profound responsibility and it is my great honour to kill Bill Gates, wipe out his collaborators in American Government who are plotting criminal wars in Asia, and implement my Natural Rights World Order. I have sacrificed and suffered a great deal of unspeakable horrors from this criminal, and I will be damned if now I will back off when the call of justice is right before my eyes. I was born to change this world, and I want these criminals who stand in the way of justice of my people totally eliminated and my Natural Rights World Order erected on their dead bodies.

3. IT WAS NOT MY INTENTION TO GET INTO GEOPOLITICS

I broke with International Socialist Organisation in 2005 and decided to pursue other things for years. Bill Gates could have just stopped blockading my earnings, $120 million from D. E. Shaw & Co. and $500 million from Christine Lagarde and ECB. But he kept destroying by criminal violation of my natural rights my personal meta. He is forcing me to arouse the wrath of 6.25 billion people of this world against him demanding Natural Rights Security in all Continents. He will be smooched to toothpaste from the stampede of the crowds. His protests of "I'm white I'm white I'm white" will be met with "Yeah, Sherlock, die! Die! Die!" His properties will be razed to the ground with glee.

4. NO ONE WILL TRUST YOU ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD AMERICAN GOVERNMENT UNTIL YOU SECURE NATURAL RIGHTS AT HOME

This nation, America is founded on a promise that the government exists to secure natural rights of Americans. I am one person but I don't believe you have interest in securing natural rights of American People at all. Until the world is convinced that you do this, that you do this willingly and with focus, that you do it well, why should anyone abroad trust you? They should not trust you. American People should not trust you either.

5. LET ME TELL YOU A STORY OF MY DEALINGS WITH A WHITE SUPREMACIST AMERICAN

So some years ago I am talking to some woman I don't know. Turns out that she is a racist, conservative, and die-hard Trump supporter. In the middle of the conversation, suddenly out of the blue she posts a picture of a gorilla or chimpanzee and tells me I look like it. I am most amused. I am not young any more and do not get my ego jarred by these things. I'm a veteran of political propaganda. So I say, well this looks to me much more like you than me. She was Serb or Croat in origin. Then she is dismayed and posts some picture of herself in bikini in the beach. I say "Yeah, definitely resembles the gorilla picture." I don't give a damn you see. I mean I don't put my ego on how attractive I look; she did. So who got busted up more? People in glass houses should not be throwing stones.

My advice to all men who have that sort of thing happen when some seemingly attractive white woman posts a picture of a chimpanzee or a gorilla and claiming you like it, always insist that they are more like it than you. She's not a lady; do not take trashy behaviour from any woman. Keep insisting that the resemblance between her and the gorilla or chimpanzee is very clear to you. That's the right answer.

6. FUNNY WELL RACISTS ARE ALL CONSERVATIVE AMONG WHITES

Let's assume a food fight between White Conservatives and non-whites. Let us counterfactually, and quite unfairly assume that all conservative white women think that non-white men look like gorillas or chimpanzees. Now we take the statistics from Pew.

Let's say that men and women are even in numbers. Now white conservative women are 51% of all white women. Whites are 60%.

Blacks are 12.4% and Hispanics 18.7%.

That's 0.5*30.6% of the white population calling 0.5*31.1% of the hispanic and black population chimpanzees. This is pretty even, but you will have bruised egos for all the Conservative white women. There is no escape here because white liberal women don't give a hoot and sympathize with the conservative white women because they will side with the hispanic and black men returning the favour. As a result the self-esteem of the entire white conservative female population will go down a few notches from bad behaviour.

7. MODIFICATION OF STRATEGY

This is for American black men. Never get offended by a white woman who posts a gorilla or chimpanzee picture claiming it looks like you. Never be offended. Instead swear to God that the resemblance between the picture and the white woman is so uncanny that you can't even believe it. Say "Your twin? Wow. You look so similar I can't tell the difference". Do it.

8. LET'S GET SERIOUS THEN

It is true that all human beings evolved from a branch in evolution around 7-8 million years ago and chimpanzees are all our evolutionary cousins and all humans share about 98% of our genome with them. So our distance from chimpanzees are literally the same as all other people. When white people who are racist post pictures, often women do this more on internet, of gorillas and chimpanzees, they are denigrating someone with the implicit assertion that 'you are less advanced and evolved than me, closer to a monkey.' Well this deserves the response that the person who attacked be considered almost exactly identical to the chimpanzee or gorilla. That's reasonable and correct. Non-white people are as evolved and advanced as any white person. The people who believe otherwise are ignorant and deserve to have their self-esteem damaged. I strongly believe that this strategy of mine is perfect and I use it all the time. I do not believe that disrespectful behaviour can go unchallenged. Being offended is not good though. Just slam them back.

Fine so most of the real evolution took place before diffusion from Africa around 75,000 years ago. We are identical in advancement from chimpanzees to 75,000 years ago. Then the differences are minor. White skin only evolved around 8500 years ago. The white people who are ignorant of basic evolution have the penchant for denigration by assumptions that are so bad that smashing their ego is a public service.
