

I AM A CULTIVATED WESTERN MAN AND BILL GATES IS DEGENERATE RIFFRAFF

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

1. CENTRALITY OF VIRTUES IN WEST

Bill Gates is fond of saying 'morality is a hoax' which makes him immediately total degenerate riffraff in Western Society. In contrast, I was respectfully invited to Princeton for my studies, and I am cultivated enough in Western Civilisation to have a fine sense for what makes Aristotles Virtue Ethics similar to Christian Ethics – with history of Thomas Aquinas' reworking of Aristotle – and different in the great distinction of guilt cultures and shame cultures.

Bill Gates says of the great Czech poet in German language Rainer Maria Rilke that he has strewn together words, while I have been writing exegesis of his Duino Elegies and accept him as a Great Prophet.

Bill Gates is not a civilised gentleman at all, but a barbaric man who is malevolent and lacking in any virtues who is a scourge on Western Civilisation, while I, Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed, am a fine connoisseur of Western Civilisation with deep education regarding the fundamental values of Liberty, of Justice, and am spiritual sibling of the great men and women of Western Genius.

The shabby ethnic tribalism of Bill Gates does not even belong to early Middle Ages of the West, and I am quite at ease with the Romantic Idealism of Percy Bysshe Shelley, and the positive vision of Jean-Jacques Rousseau on the potential of individual human beings not just in America and Europe but everywhere on Earth.

It is clear to me, because I am a Princeton educated gentleman of refined cultivation in the West, that I am the one holding high the best and loftiest values of the West and it is Bill Gates who is attempting to destroy them and doom Western Civilisation.
