

ON BILL GATES OPINION THAT ASIA IS WEAK TO AMERICAN WAR

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

First question anyone planning to follow Bill Gates to War in Asia is whether he is actually clear that we lost the war against Vietnam, which Vietnam did not start but we did with a false flag in Gulf of Tonkin. After some years of war in Vietnam, we lost the war. I would strongly advise against starting wars with Asia just as we are barely recovering from Covid disaster and Asia is not plotting any war against us. Instead my personal recommendation is to bomb Bill Gates relentlessly until his body is obliterated and wash our hands off this evil cunt once and for all. Asia and we have to co-operate for mutual benefit for a lot of problems social and economic both in West and East, and I recommend not only should we wipe out these malevolent cunts like Bill Gates but find all the other cunts like him and just execute the mother fuckers point blank. These little shits do not actually ever serve in any war in the trenches and do not even feel sorry for our sons and daughters returning with missing limbs on pointless aggression they create. We can benefit from watching Bill Gates with two missing legs and two missing arms writhing in the mud instead. How about that?
