

WHY I NEED BILL GATES TOTALLY DESTROYED AND KILLED AND WIPED OUT FROM HISTORY

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Two years ago I did not know Bill Gates from a can of tomato soup. I had seen some of his interviews and documentaries and thought that he's a successful businessman, now a philanthropist, no big deal.

In the last year I dealt with him in meta and discovered that he is an evil malevolent destructive amoral disgusting white supremacist and he gratuitously harmed me and disrespected my Finance work and insulted it and went out of his way to make sure I could not get earning from my great work while he would profit from it and he harmed me repeating he has 'white right'.

This is by far the most disgusting, low, beneath contempt, horrid, stinky, evil, malevolent man in existence and he simply needs to be totally wiped out and killed before I can move on with my life and the success I deserve. I am infinitely superior to him and he deserves not just a death penalty but a thousand repeated death penalties of varying amount of pain and torture in cruel and unusual ways for the horrible manner in which he treated me.

Now I am an ordinary man. And my growth and future is being barricaded, and I have no choice but to totally wipe him out by any possible way, recruiting anyone who can do it. It so happens that IRS is coming into the picture because it ought to have been the US Senate that got rid of this evil malevolent racial supremacist deceptive criminal and not the IRS. But I don't look a gift horse in the mouth.

Notice that over the past year his wife left him and now he is being probed for criminal malfeasance on taxes, and soon all the horrible ways he has abused his power – much of it illegitimate like US War Power and Forbidden 13th century European black magic power, against my interests. All this is going to slam him too and sooner or later the whole world will be against him.

Glib psychopathic cunts like Bill Gates obsessed with power never have any real friends anyway. Who the fuck would want to be actual friends with a freakazoid like him? He says he took the opportunity to cut into my meta and harm my ancestral meta instead of paying what I was owed to make him goddam money and then he thinks he's on the right and he has convictions about whites being superior and wanting to enslave all nonwhites in the world. Who the fuck wants this cunt alive at all? And whoever you are you better stare yourself long and hard to make sure you are okay with this because I'll come after all you mother fucking cunts.

1. CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH SUPPORT OR ADMIRATION OF BILL GATES IS TOO COSTLY

Bill Gates is a reprehensible man who is a pathological liar and a psychopath with no moral compass or moral Conscience whatsoever who holds on to delusional beliefs about White Supremacy. So he's a good candidate for the Moral Black Sheep of the entire world.

Now moral ardour is emotional, and this means that people who support Bill Gates will be tainted by his Evil and will elicit from people enormous emotional reaction that are uncontrollable and they will face not just vitriolic verbal abuse but physical harm by random strangers on the streets. In other words, their support and admiration for Bill Gates will put at risk their health and interests.

This risk is not controllable because I will never ever take responsibility for harm done to someone else that I did not do myself. So I will just respond with people do things for their own interests and not mine.

Even if I use rhetoric to bring the entire world to a frenzy, I will not accept responsibility for what they do unless I commissioned them to harm someone. But this I would never do, so all those who might be bodily injured or mistreated for their support of Bill Gates cannot hold me accountable for their troubles. I will claim total lack of responsibility and tell them, "Well serves you right. Why did you support and admire Bill Gates? I did not. You paid for your own actions because all positions have consequences. I don't have sympathy for you." Then what will you do?
