

WHAT ASIA CAN EXPECT WITHOUT ASIAN DEFENSE

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

On March 16 1968, the My Lai Massacre involved United States Military brutally massacring 500 people in a peaceful village of Vietnam, with women brutally raped and mutilated.

I think this is one of the most significant and important examples for all Asians to understand clearly the horrible nature of the United States and what is inevitable without Asian Defense capable of repelling the United States military forces.

William Calley

Army commanders had advised the soldiers of Charlie Company that all who were found in the Son My area could be considered VC or active VC sympathizers, and ordered them to destroy the village.

When they arrived shortly after dawn, the soldiers—led by Lieutenant William Calley—found no Viet Cong. Instead, they came across a quiet village of primarily women, children and older men preparing their breakfast rice.

The villagers were rounded up into groups as the soldiers inspected their huts. Despite finding only a few weapons, Calley ordered his men to begin shooting the villagers.

1. COVER-UP OF THE MY LAI MASSACRE

By the time the My Lai massacre ended, 504 people were dead. Among the victims were 182 women—17 of them pregnant—and 173 children, including 56 infants.

Knowing news of the massacre would cause a scandal, officers higher up in command of Charlie Company and the 11th Brigade immediately made efforts to downplay the bloodshed.

The coverup of the My Lai Massacre continued until Ron Ridenhour, a soldier in the 11th Brigade who had heard reports of the massacre but had not participated, began a campaign to bring the events to light. After writing letters to President Richard M. Nixon, the Pentagon, State Department, Joint Chiefs of Staff and several congressmen—with no response—Ridenhour finally gave an interview to the investigative journalist Seymour Hersh, who broke the story in November 1969.

2. COMMENTARY

Note the moral depravity not just of the brutal American military butchers in My Lai Massacre, but the moral depravity of the entire United States Government, who attempted to cover up the horrible events instead of coming clean with it. That is the nature of the American Government. That has been the nature of the American Government in 1830. That has been the nature of the American Government in 1930. That will be the nature of American Government in 2030 in a decade. That is who the American Government is, and always will be.

Asia should not be fooled at all by the rhetoric of American Government. They will massacred all parts of Asia and throw women and children into ditches and kill them with machine gun in all parts of Asia, and pretend to be morally superior. There is nothing strange in this, and Asia will be foolish to think anything else is even remotely possible.

American people do have good people with conscience, but they are systematically punished and mistreated. You can see this from the political repercussions of My Lai in Washington.

Do not make any mistake, Asia. This is how white people in American Government have been for two centuries and you will be wise to expect no different behaviour.

3. WHITE PEOPLE IN AMERICAN GOVERNMENT ARE MORALLY TOO PRIMITIVE TO VALUE NON-WHITE LIVES

In order to understand just how morally low and degenerate white people in American Government are, all you have to do is pay careful attention to the trajectory of William Calley. He ordered the massacre of 500 innocent old people, women and children with rapes and mutilation including pregnant women. What happened to him. This would justify burning him at the stake for pure evil in my assessment immediately and without any doubts and compunction. Did that happen?

No.

During the four-month-long trial, Calley consistently claimed that he was following orders from his commanding officer, Captain Medina. Despite that, he was convicted and sentenced to life in prison on 29 March 1971, after being found guilty of premeditated murder of not fewer than 20 people. Two days later, President Richard Nixon made the controversial decision to have Calley released from armed custody at Fort Benning, Georgia, and put under house arrest pending appeal of his sentence. Calley's conviction was upheld by the Army Court of Military Review in 1973 and by the U.S. Court of Military Appeals in 1974.[102]

In August 1971, Calley's sentence was reduced by the convening authority from life to twenty years. Calley would eventually serve three and one-half years under house arrest at Fort Benning including three months in a disciplinary barracks in Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. In September 1974, he was paroled by the Secretary of the Army, Howard Callaway.

This is how much Asian lives are worth to the American Government. The above is accurate account from Wikipedia [2].

4. UNITED STATES SHOULD HAVE BEEN SHUT DOWN FROM ALL MILITARY OPERATIONS IN ASIA AFTER MY LAI MASSACRE

Look, I am morally extremely strong. I would have literally immediately burned William Calley at the stake for pure evil. United States white people did not do that. Instead, they lied about 19 Muslim hijackers years later in 2001. There were no hijackers on September 11 2001. United States had classified war plans and Israel's Mossad did the remote control-demolition operations. And then there were two decades of wars in Western Asia.

Asia, I want you to consolidate Asian Defenses of East and West and South Asia against these evil people. They cannot be trusted to not repeat these horrible evil things for centuries otherwise.

I do not want shoddy work here, Asia. I want proper defense of 4.5 billion Asians against this evil.
