

ZULF'S KINDEST SUGGESTION TO BILL GATES

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Bill Gates,

You are inferior to myself, a non-white man. I am so superior to yourself it is not even possible to imagine. Why don't you make it easier and kill yourself from shame? You can get poisons that will do it without pain. Don't you think you should kill yourself from shame? That's right. Here you are a white man. You're a white man, and yet a poor non-white man is far superior to you. The shame is unbearable, isn't it? It's unbearable and you no longer have the will to live with this shame, isn't that true Bill Gates. Everyone in the world knows, Bill Gates. Everyone in the world knows that I am not white, and I am far superior to you. Make it easier on yourself. Just lose your life. It will be just okay.

Thank you,

Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed
