

ZULF WILL ATTACK BILL GATES IN HIS POSITION IN EVERY PART OF AMERICAN SOCIETY BASED ON "HAMMURABI WAS WHITE"

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

1. HAMMURABI WAS WHITE IS NOT AN INNOCENT OPINION

Unless Bill Gates has concrete evidence with DNA and bones and archaeology and historical texts that Hammurabi was white or I will destroy his position and credibility in every single arena of American Society systematically until he is thought to be a totally deranged madman and dismissed from everywhere he turns around the world.

Why would I take this strong position? It is not plausible that during the Mesopotamian era, when even Mycenaean Greece had not established itself, that the hunter gatherers and foragers that populated Europe would have produced anyone that would become an Amorite King in the Middle East. This is irrational and senseless by any historical examination. Oxford and Cambridge has many historians. There are literally hundreds of experts on this topic, and no reputable account has ever appeared that would suggest such an absurdity. I will then argue that if Bill Gates is unable to produce any credible account on this simple issue then all his judgments about all other matters are suspect and that he ought to be excommunicated from all positions of power and authority in the American Society altogether.

Not even high school educated people without any privileges of attending Harvard at all, or being offered the opportunity to talk about importance of education in public using one's personal funds, no one holds such absurd irrational views and is not ridiculed and mocked in public for being deranged. Bill Gates continuously claims that these are based on his own 'considers'. Well his considers are clearly deranged. Analogies of this absurdity are obvious. It would be tantamount to me claiming that all the Danish kings were actually Bengali but no one noticed because my considers show this because obviously all rulers of the past in all Civilisations were actually Bengali. Even children in Bengal would not be so silly.

2. I WILL WIN ANY CREDIBILITY WAR WITH BILL GATES IN MY SLEEP

I do have some complex views but mostly I am open and honest and zealous in my convictions and do not hide myself. I do not say one thing to one person and say another thing to another. I tell everyone what Zulf is all about. I don't give a damn if they agree or not. So given infinite time, everyone in the world will know Zulf is X and Zulf is not Y etc. Bill Gates is a chameleon. He says he's for equal opportunity to one person and then he is vile and filled with hate for non-whites in private conviction. He says he's benevolent in his self-promotion PR while he is malevolent behind the scenes. Such a man is not credible and trustworthy. He's a hollow man, a chameleon, and unworthy of anyone's trust. Zulf is who Zulf is, open and resplendent in his honesty. You may hate what I stand for but you won't be confused about what I stand for – at least for the most part. I stand for Single Human Race. I stand for security of Natural Rights of all human beings. I hate people who are malevolent and want to harm my Beloved People the Human Race. I can't stand small and mean thoughts and prefer vast and oceanic universal thoughts. I do believe in individual uniqueness but I absolutely hate and abhor racial tribalism with a passion, etc.
