

GOOD STANFORD LAW SCHOOL YOU FOUND DAMNING EVIDENCE HUH

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Stanford Law School,

I just saw that you found some damning evidence against Bill Gates. He is by far one of the most evil beings ever to occupy a human body. I congratulate you, and I hope you don't want me to do pom poms for cheerleading because I am not good at that and would feel a little awkward. But I do congratulate you and wish you swift success to slaying a Demon Soul.

It is indeed true that I gave him a trading strategy being run by David E. Shaw of my own work of several years. He has put in $2 billion and is making money on it, and instead of paying me my $120 million the wretched illiterate peasant-born snot-nosed little shit dares to say that I was insolent while he is too uncultivated to even understand that he is the insolent one. The little worthless wretched cunt deserves to be burned alive and have purifying fires consume his flesh, and I wish you the best to make this a reality. This world does not need him among the living at all.

Thanks,

Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed
