

TEACH YOUR KIDS TO DISRESPECT RICH FUCKS WITH $140 BILLION

When I was young my parents taught me to respect everyone and be noble and good. And this was good. But now I am 48 I realise their error. They did not tell me who to disrespect and that hurt me. Now I know that one should teach their kids to strongly disrespect people with a lot of money like $140 billion who are unworthy, who are not as good as them, such as Bill Gates. People like Bill Gates ought to be disrespected by all kids everywhere. We are failing our kids' education by only telling them who they should respect and tolerate and not telling them who they should disrespect.

Do not disrespect the poor hobo who has struggled. Do not disrespect the man who has put in a great effort and failed in life by unfair social rules. But do strongly disrespect the unworthy criminal rich fucks like Bill Gates with great hubris and arrogance who are not worthy.
