

ZULF BETTER TELL UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HOW TO RUN A REPUBLIC OTHERWISE THEY WILL COLLAPSE THE SKY

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

United States Government, I understand that these concepts like "running a Republic of 330 million people" is difficult for you to grasp. I understand that it is very hard for you. I have a heart. I see you struggle running a Republic of 330 million and get very confused and befuddled about how to do it.

Here I will give you some training in how to run a Republic of 330 million with minimal competence. First of all, you should all open and read the United States Declaration of Independence Preamble. Ignore all the things having to do with native Americans. Those are all not relevant (and they are wrong). But the key is that the purpose of United States Government is to secure all American natural rights. Be sure you understand this. "Governments are instituted among men to secure these rights" refers to every Americans' (such as myself) rights of Life, Liberty, and Pursuit of Happiness.

As a result of this, you are not actually allowed to privilege anyone in such a way that he is able to violate natural rights of anyone else. You can privilege some people in some ways but you have no legitimate authority to privilege 'prominent' people and cause a cascade of violations of US Declaration of Independence and Constitutional mandates.

Let's understand this by example. Peter Sabadabadoo is American. You deem Peter to be extremely prominent. I won't use Bill Gates as example because he is too easy. Peter, then. Peter Sabadabadoo is quite a great businessman with a law degree from Cornell, and he owns many sorts of spare parts for automobiles and some garments industries in the East, and he has all manner of relationships with Merrill Lynch and Goldman Sachs, and he is also quite adept at macroeconomics and was personal friends with Paul Volcker, Alan Greenspan, and is on a first name basis with the Dean of Oxford and all his children are in Ivy League and so on. So he's successful and prominent.

You cannot give Peter Sabadabadoo any privileges to slaughter the homeless as one of his bad habits where, after watching American Psycho and not having enough entertainment because Netflix movies and the local bordellos did not give him enough for his secret pleasures.

You are fine if he attends the Masked Ball of Stanley Kubrick's Eyes Wide Shut because that does not involve violating anyone's natural rights. It's a little spooky to go around in black cloaks and masks with various naked women walking around with dark crimson carpets. But that's ok.

But the moment his hobby turns to putting on a mask at night in various cities and slaughtering hobos, you are obligated to put him through ordinary criminal justice process despite him being prominent. Not doing so will produce a cascade that will delegitimize the entire Multi-Ethnic Classical Liberal Democratic Republic.

The instructions of Preamble of US Declaration of Independence, let me remind you what that is:

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, —That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed.

These are not rhetorical noise. They are part of our Constitution and your purpose is given explicitly. If you do not follow the principles exactly, and interpret them as you wish, you are failing to run a Republic appropriately. Do not come up with all manner of rubbish excuses to defile the founding Charter of the Republic. There is nothing else you stand on.

1. OAK TREE WILL FALL WITH ROT AT FOUNDATIONS NOT BRANCHES

Consider this oak tree here.

You see, United States is like this oak tree, and the structure of government of this country is based on the foundations, US Declaration of Independence Preamble is part of that foundation. Take the analogy seriously and think about it carefully.

You see, if you rot a branch far from the foundations, the tree will be hurt but survive. But if you rot the foundations, all laws will be uncertain and incoherent, and this will end with a cascade that produces an internal extinction of the United States of America even without external threats. The whole tree will be uprooted and collapse from it.

Never ever go against the fine foundations. United States was, from its very beginning a nation of heterogenous ethnic composition. Today there are many cultists of the so-called 'white race'. No such race has ever existed. The Dutch and English and German immigrants to America were never part of any historical race. There is no substance to 'white race'; it's a political fiction. Americans are vastly multi-ethnic in composition. You cannot operate at all if you continuously pretend that the structure is robust enough to handle your whims. We, America, were not a tribal civilisation of three millenia like Germans; or six thousand years like the Iraqis and Syrians (from Mesopotamia), or four thousand years like the Indians. We are founded by Romantic Era principles and playing fast and loose on these principles based on superficial ideas about 'good for the economy' and such will inevitably extinguish the civilisation. You have to remember that 330 million is not a small number for any government.

I will continuously remind you of this that this is not political rhetoric. Nations and governments have never been perfect. The risk that I have seen you take with natural rights – threat to mine and others from privileges of 'prominent' people is suicidal for the structure.

You see, United States Government, there is actual reality of eight billion people who are evolved for 7-8 billion years. You have some privileges and some power and love to hear yourselves talk in an echo chamber. Don't lie. It's true. Don't fool yourselves and pretend that what you think the world is like is actually how the world is like. That will not preserve the Republic. Even with billions spent on NSA you will still need to actually know something about human nature, as the driving force of how a system of eight billion people function is much more complicated than the way you would like to use your demographic models to feel like you know. You don't know, and you won't for thousands of years because human nature is still quite mysterious.

Do not constantly makes trivial errors. Stay true to your foundations. The men who founded the nation were much wiser than most people you know.

2. LET ME SHARE PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

For the years 1999-2003 for some years I lived with a Danish lover, who was a student at MIT. She lived with me on Hancock Street in Cambridge, Massachussets close to MIT and Harvard. Then she moved with me to New York, and we lived in 138th Street off Broadway. I never considered her any different race than myself.

You see, the human race is a single race, and the notions of Bill Gates of a 'white race' is not correct. My ex-lover Sine Jensen was closer in values to me than she will ever be to Bill Gates. Bill Gates ideas are based on ignorance and illiteracy of having had bad education and upbringing in provincial Seattle. He made some money by his charlatan methods, fooling people with lies about his prodigious genius. Microsoft was never particularly good at software development at all. I know this well since I have been a coder professionally. They had not taste and no great talent. And Bill Gates used black magic forbidden in Europe since the thirteenth century against my body and US War meta and other harmful things. You know quite well that black magic is meant to harm the physical body and mind of people. You knew these horrible evil intentions and actions of Bill Gates for decades but you did not bring him to justice in the 1970s, 1980s, 1990s, 2000s, four decades. You thought he would be good for the economy. You were terribly mistaken. He has harmed US Technology more than any human being on Earth. He has constantly sabotaged great innovation. He has constantly made bad strategic decisions. His coding skills and talents are menial. The 330 million Americans deserve much better from you, United States Government. We trust that you will eliminate threats to our life and livelihood. You must deliver.

3. ZULF IS QUITE ASTOUNDED BY UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

In 2006-7 I worked with Jon Spencer and Douglas Hepworth who are senior members of Gresham Investment Management. In 1995 I worked directly under Andrew Morton who ran the Fixed Income Derivative Research as a quant out of Princeton. How does it happen that an organisation of 1.4 million white people, tasked to run a Republic serving 330 million, collecting $1.5 trillion yearly taxes, is confused and befuddled by my Finance background at the intention to deceive by a single individual, Bill Gates?

How does this happen, exactly? You were confused about my legality because Bill Gates told you I had forged papers while it was USCIS who had granted me Permanent Residency in 1997, USCIS# 046-077-179.

How does a single criminal, Bill Gates, have the ability to fool a government responsible to 330 million so often? You don't have any sense? You don't double check records? You don't have information sources independent of a hick charlatan with high school education with idiotic racial views from podunk Seattle? Are you serious?

4. UNITED STATES DECLINE IS IN YOUR ROTTEN CHARACTER

Look, United States, don't blame Islamic terrorists and Chinese economic threat and all manner of rubbish for decline of the United States. I see this clearly, that you should look in the mirror for the decline. It's in your rotten character, where you would get confused about not taking down a murderous racial criminal and harm the life of an American who is law abiding following his American Dream. Right there is the fundamental cause of the Decline of America. It's not Muslim militants. It's not China. It's you. It's your rotten Character and inability to do the right thing when it hits you right in the face.

5. THAT'S GOOD

That is very good. Now you can deduce that Bill Gates' intentions and actions to dominate the life of a non-white American man's life by methods not permitted by US Declaration of Independence Preamble and US Constitution leads you to act to conter him. That is a good step. Please ensure that my private property of $620 million earned legitimately from D. E. Shaw & Co. and Madam Christine Lagarde of European Central Bank are available to me as well please.
