violence justified log-linear by religion

1. ALL RELIGIONS SHARE IDENTICAL MORAL VIEWS REGARDING VIOLENCE

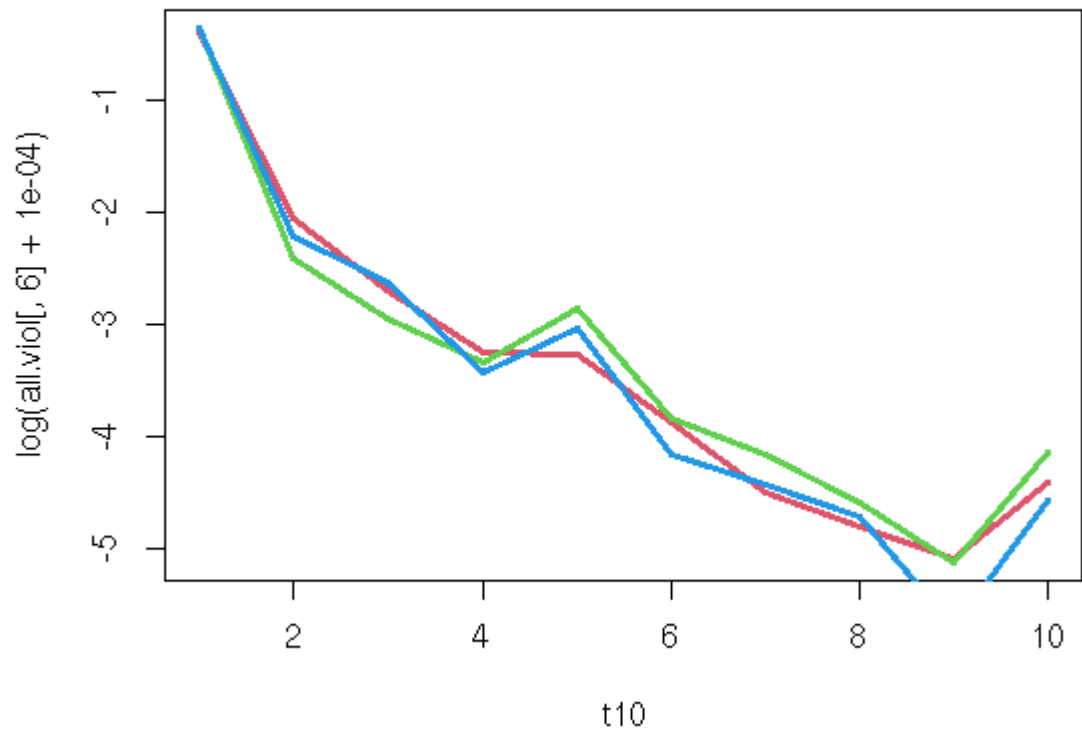

One of my greatest scientific discoveries has been universality of moral values across the world. The uniformity across religions for moral opinion here is quite close. Statistically they are indistinguishable by my criteria for discrete variation by my Zulf chisquared independence test. There is fine structure beyond exponential that we can see in the graphs.

2. APPLICATION: REFUTE ANTI-MUSLIM PROPAGANDA

I love my work having immediate applications, and the first is the observation that Muslim views of violence are virtually identical to Christian views of violence.
