

IF UNITED STATES FAILS TO SECURE MY NATURAL RIGHTS IT WILL DISAPPEAR IN 40 YEARS AFTER BEING DECLARED A FAILED STATE

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

United States of America, I will argue will disappear altogether in 40 years after being declared a Failed State by the world if Bill Gates manages to kill me using his various illicit powers.

That's because I have extensive written record requesting that my Natural Rights be secured as per contract and US Declaration to the United States continuously while US has failed to execute the malevolent murderous criminal Bill Gates.

Now I am an immortal genius since Four-Sphere Theory is correct, so I will be celebrated around the world and US Government will have lost all leadership in Natural Rights around the world and be considered a corrupt failed state by the world.

In contrast, if United States kills Bill Gates, the repercussions are totally minor. He was deceptive and murderous and psychopathic and criminal for his entire life so the reaction is minor. Most Americans do not think of him as a great figure the moment he is found to have been a charlatan and a white supremacist. It's totally minor the reaction to obliterating and killing Bill Gates.

Those in Washington who think otherwise are idiots and totally deluded about the state of the world. Natural Rights are the core of United States, and I am not the criminal here; Bill Gates repeatedly says "Natural Rights are claptrap" and I am a law abiding American.

Now you could risk it and let Bill Gates continue to harm me with meta means, but you are risking the extinction of the United States of America since I have explicitly cited Natural Rights protection as the reason for why Bill Gates ought to be killed.

Since I have cited my Natural Rights as the key, repercussions of Bill Gates' death is far less serious than repercussions of my death. If you don't get it you are a total illiterate moron and should not even walk into any US Government building in Washington.
