

ZULF IS SURE THAT RUSSIA IS ASIA

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

I never understood why people think Russia is Europe. Nothing could be more ridiculous. Russia is so Asia that it shares borders with not even West Asia but Far East. That's pretty Asia Asia. But there is another way to prove that Russia is Asia. Basically it is obvious that the characterisation of Asia is the place everyone always plots to invade. Look at thousands of years of history and you will find that no one ever plans to invade with all sorts of ruminations and brooding nods and dark moods any other place than Asia. No one really wants to invade Western Europe or even South America. They might plan backpacking trips. I don't even know any novels where someone sits around in some dark room brooding seriously and nodding and saying to his buddies, "My friends, we cannot but invade Western Europe, because it's our manifest destiny". They don't do those sorts of things because Western Europe is not Asia. See Bill Gates is instantly trying to enslave me, an Asian Noble. You can bet than if I were even from Hawaii or somewhere in the Caribbean, he would not be excited. In fact there is a deep-rooted need to invade Asia. And that's how people look at Russia too. Everyone has always been dreaming of invading Russia. There was Napoleon, Hitler, and numerous other people the Tatars, Mongols. And that is the most clear proof that Russia is Asia.
