

OPEN LETTER TO LEADERSHIP OF HAITI

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Dear Leadership of Haiti,

I apologize. Let me use this opportunity to yell at a stupid hick illiterate uncultured huckster Bill Gates. Bill Gates, you stupid hick illiterate uncultured huckster, what do you mean Werthers toffee is not for non-whites? You think you, a stupid hick illiterate uncultured huckster will tell me about cuisine and palate and taste in fine food and wine? You make me laugh you uncultured boorish gaudy ostentatious man. I have always had the highest taste in fine cuisine. You forget too easily that we, Asians, we invented Civilisation you stupid illiterate tasteless riffraff. I love Cadbury's chocolate, have fine taste in Swiss chocolate too, and have a great familiarity with European cheeses and have spent years of my life as a gourmand in New York. You thin you, a man without cultivation will be able to compete with me on fine taste in cuisine? Hah. You are funnier than a cat wearing one of the hand-woven sweaters.

Anyway, apologies, Haiti. Why I am writing to you is because I want you to change your orientation. Forget about America. Your natural allies are Eurasians. Why don't you take a look at my Eurasian proposals and get involved there. They are better friends for you.

Cheerios,

Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed
