LITTLE PEOPLE

United States of America is the only place in the world where a successful businessman literally believes that big people have a right to murder little people.

This is not actually possible in Asia or Europe. Both in Asia and Europe regardless of whether it is better or worse than America, there is a constraining culture from the weight of history of at least a thousand years. You cannot actually hold quite unique convictions and simultaneously be acceptable to society. The belief and conviction that Bill Gates has developed that big people have a right to kill little people and that is just the way things are is not possible in Europe or Asia.

See, in both Asia and Europe, people do not get to have acceptability in society at all if they believe that killing people can be anyone's right. America is free and open in a sense, but also leads to some strange evolutionary creatures like Bill Gates who are psychopaths, who would be beaten to death if he were in England or China or any other Old World country but is venerated in America.
