

ZULF CAN EASILY TAKE OVER AND OCCUPY WASHINGTON WITHOUT ANY TRICKS AT ALL

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

I can take a few provocative populist pieces ok? The whites in US Executive Branch are dumb for not killing Bill Gates plus why not ship off all US Executive Branch white people to Aushwitz and gas them? I can get some Foreign Powers to get together – I have in mind England, Germany, France, China, Japan, Russia, and ask them to change all their uniforms to UN Peacekeeping uniforms. Then I want them to produce a mutual defense alliance and don their UN Peacekeeping Uniforms and not their national uniforms. They can shake hands and do all sorts of signing documents and pledge eternal love to each other or whatever. So it's legitimate. They are actually UN Peacekeepers now. It's not an underhanded trick.

Then they can be very curious about the robustness of American Democracy, give talks at Princeton and Harvard and Yale and Stanford, Berkeley etc. about the anniversary of Alexis de Toqueville and then have some surveys with my documents. Nothing underhanded, and there is no Trojan Horse involved ok? Everything is clean. They now have a great relationship with America, etc. Then they do the survey to 330 million with just curiosity what would you do and so on. That will naturally produce social disruptions without provocation in America because I am a genius and I know American people. Then without any tricks, the Powers will be quite concerned, genuinely concerned and Peacekeeping forces come in to keep peace and order. American Government can examine every Power's back channels and CIA saw nothing unusual because there was nothing to see, stupid. The Powers did not do anything strange and covert. Now there are Peacekeeping forces keeping peace in Washington. That is called: Knight moves; checkmate.
