

THIS BILL GATES IS A TEST OF ENDURANCE FOR AN ARCHANGEL

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

This Bill Gates who ought to have his white baby self blown to bits with explosives in 1955 so the walls have the texture of Jackson Pollock's The Red Composition is a test of endurance for an Archangel. He is so stupid and annoying in my meta the Human Race will manage to push all of Angels and Archangels of Heaven away from doing anything at all here for ages.

He keeps repeating "I'm white". Well between 1180-1300 I had a life on Earth as well, and I was an Englishman. There is no ethnicity to an Archangel Soul. Indeed there are millions of races that are humanoid in the universe. I won't go into what they are like because it does not matter. What matters is that Bill Gates is an uncivilised beastly savage. I have work to do here on Earth. I had formulated the project of Global Life Satisfaction and Bill Gates disrupted it. He is so uncouth and savage that most Angels would cage him next to the hyenas for observation. But for some reason the Whites in American Government allow him loose to prey upon people.
