Whatever you think you know about this cat "Bill Gates" it's a mirage. I know this cat better than all human beings and past and present. This is a Demon. Human race has not encountered a real genuine honest-to-goodness live in the flesh Demon so you don't know this cat. His father and mother and sisters and ex-wife and children do not know this cat as well as I do. He is a Demon. I am 1000% certain of this, and he is a threat of extinction of the entire human race. So kindly sever all your ties with him immediately and move out of my way. I am an Archangel and this is Archangel business. Sorry for the inconvenience but you're going to get hurt if you get in between an Archangel conflict with a Demon.

Alright. He's not "Bill you should do this and you should do that". Your "Bill Gates" is just a mirage. This, ladies and gentlemen, is a pure Demon, provably so, and Demons are Demons. They are not people who needed more love from their mothers when they were young and are a little misunderstood. Demons are Demons and they are not human beings. They are Demons. They work differently. You do not know Bill Gates because he is a Demon and you are not a Demon. Ok?
