

ZULF REQUESTS NATALIA BRIZUELA STAY AWAY FROM MY META AND MY LIFE AND I DO NOT OWE HER ANYTHING
AT ALL

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

I honour my relationship with Natalia Brizuela between 1995-2005. We parted actually in 1999. She got me an Apartment in Avenue D in East Village, 8th Street and dropped off my books. She changed the locks on our home. The pretext was she thought it would be good for me etc. I did not do much with her after. In San Francisco in 2005 she wanted divorce. I made it amicable.

I don't owe her anything.

I do not want her involved at all in my life. I do not take responsibility for any harm to her body, life, any kidnapping or any war-related or geo-political consequences at all.

We have been divorced. We have no financial dealings with each other at all. We have been estranged since 1999.

I will not take any liability for any harm in any way to her life if she does not respect of our divorce. She is not my wife. I repeat she is not my wife and we have not much to do with each other for more than 16 years except very minor social contact.

Thanks,

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED
