

NEW IMAGINATION FOR THEORETICAL PHYSICS FOLLOWING FOUR-SPHERE THEORY

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED
ZULFIKAR.AHMED@GMAIL.COM

There is an opportunity for a new understanding of theoretical physics that I am still struggling to understand. Since the 1960s there has been a unified theory that I am going to be challenging. The Standard Model unified electromagnetic, weak, and strong forces.

I have been quite successful in eliminating gravity from physical theory altogether. It is a simple but valid and strong refutation.

Four-sphere theory grew between my original inspiration in a loft in Williamsburg in the summer of 2008, and it has succeeded far beyond my original expectation. You can find my dated notes here [1].

I am most keen on taking the next step from mathematical physics to phenomena in the external world. What is driving this is my strong conviction developing now that there exist more fine features of electromagnetism that has not been known in history and will have concrete experimental verification in the future. My four-sphere theory and my fundamental law, Ahmed-d'Alembert Law or S4 Electromagnetic Law is not the same as Maxwell's Laws. And in the difference I expect new understanding of electromagnetism in Nature never before known or understood.

I was waiting to hear from Stanford University as I would like to recover $620 million in earning, relocate to San Francisco and go back into working life but unfortunately Bill Gates, who is a disgusting and low illiterate hick criminal charlatan got in my way. The United States Government seems unwilling to curtail his destructive criminal and lawless activities despite their rhetoric about natural rights of Americans. This Bill Gates is reviving a more vile version of the Nazi Racial ideology without even support from American White People. He's disgusting, vile, inferior, but unfortunately he has some cronies in the United States Government supporting his Racial Order claptrap. They ought to be executed in bloody and painful manner for Treason.

Bill Gates eliminated a great deal of my ethnic meta in the past year and a half which included a lot of elements needed for my health. However, I will not rest until Bill Gates is properly totally destroyed and all his assets are confiscated. He is an Enemy of Human Race and one of the greatest villains in history.

1. RE-EXAMINATION OF QED LAGRANGIAN

The manner in which electric charge is handled in four-sphere theory is in analogy to the manner in which it is handled in the Lagrangian of Quantum Electrodynamics.

Date: February 12, 2022.

We are interested in learning something more about Nature than is already known from 1960s when QED matured. This is a future direction in physics. The ansatz that has been useful to me is to (a) totally remove Special Relativity from the QED lagrangian. Four-sphere theory is a theory of Absolute Space and Absolute Time. The absolute space in four-sphere theory is  $S^4(R)$ . For clarity in Mathematics although  $R = 3075.69 Mpc$ , we set  $R = 1$  and use standard mathematics of spinor fields on four-sphere following H. B. Lawson and M.-L. Michelsohn's Spin Geometry [2].

Second, all the objects are Spinor fields, i.e. sections of the spinor bundle  $\Sigma S^4$ . For example, we consider both  $A$  and  $\psi$  to be spinor fields. Four-sphere theory is not at all a quantum field theory. It is a classical field theory where only spinor fields determine physics. We like the coupling method from Quantum Electrodynamics and use it for dealing with charges. However we challenge QED as a Scientific Theory. Our fundamental law is not Maxwell's, Schroedinger's or Dirac's or Einstein's Equations. It is my fundamental law, the S4 Electromagnetic Law. We claim our mathematical physics theory is the exact final description of all physical phenomena larger than  $\delta = 10^{-15}$  cm.

2. WHAT IS CHARGE AND WHAT IS 'FORCE'

I think the ideas of Standard Model are not right in a deep sense. I do not believe that photons as 'force carriers' for electromagnetism is the best scientific theory at all. I think there is a deeper and more correct answer to the questions 'What is charge?' and 'What is Force?' that is more correct in four-sphere theory but I do not yet know what it is. These will have geometrically motivated answers I will propose.

3. INTEREST IN ENLIGHTENMENT AND ROMANTIC THOUGHT

As I begin to feel a bit stronger in Mathematical Analysis again, despite the destructive effects of assaults on my health and life and finances by one of the most evil, barbaric, horrific, savage, murderous, disgusting vile, criminal men ever born in human body, Bill Gates who is also a hick illiterate con man and charlatan who is without doubt one of greatest threats to all human race, a who is a tribal racial man, I am quite optimistic that I will be able to continue to serve my beloved people the Human Race with great new works. I am interested in the value of the Romantic Self for Positive Psychology and I have scanned over a very good book, The Creative Imagination of James Engell, for an account of various philosophies from Enlightenment and Romanticism. This period is actually important for me. I was organically drawn to Modernism and had studied poetry of Shelley and the Romantics since I was young but now with the success of four-sphere theory I do need to get a deeper sense of development of philosophy in Europe for Science as well.

The issues are quite sophisticated and the various constant disruption of Bill Gates to damage my exoskeleton and disrupt my tenure considers and efforts with Conquest and Enslavement day and night is quite distracting. These sorts of racial cunts obviously ought to be bombed relentlessly and destroyed physically so great immortal geniuses like myself can get some peace.

4. UNITED STATES OF AMERICA CANNOT EXIST AT ALL IF BILL GATES KEEPS REPEATING RACIAL SLURS IN MY META NONSTOP 24-7

Bill Gates, who was offered a good investment opportunity by myself in meta more than a year ago with D. E. Shaw & Co. put in $2 billion into my Medium Frequency Strategy, is making money from my work, and used all manner of illegitimate powers to harm my career and ethnic meta with repeating 'Whites Are Superior' day and night every minute for more than a year. This I construe as egregious violation of all my natural rights as an American. United States of America cannot be allowed to be considered a legitimate nation at all if it continues any longer. Bill Gates is a racial criminal and a charlatan and has been damaging unsuspecting people with aggressive and war-criminal methods for four decades. Unless the United States eliminates him totally quite soon I will begin a campaign to totally delegitimise United States of America. Bill Gates cannot be venerated and respected by the United States Government after my experiences with him. He is a horrid abominable murderous criminal man who sabotaged an earning of $620 million causing great hardship for my mother who is dying and is waiting for success and I have achieved my American Dream and am owed money from D. E. Shaw & Co. that Bill Gates blockaded. This man is an imposter. I can assure the world that his intellectual level is menial and that he is a con man and a charlatan through and through. He was a psychopath from youth and has spent his entire life plotting White Racial World Order while pretending to be a technology man. He's a total riffraff in intellect and has extremely negative value to America. He ought to have been destroyed in the early 1970s. He's a grave threat to natural rights of 100 million Americans since he has found various ways to harm people long distance using powers such as US War Power. Why does a criminal charlatan has possession of United States War Power in the first place? What is the United States Government doing with our tax money? They are supposed to remove parasitic criminals, not cultivate them and worship them.

5. INTERLUDE WITH FITZGERALD

In my younger and more vulnerable years my father gave me some advice that I have been turning over in my mind ever since.

"Whenever you feel like criticizing anyone," he told me, "just remember that all the people in the world haven't had the advantages you've had."

This is the beginning of The Great Gatsby. I would have thought that this is a reasonable sober sort of idea till I encountered this savage beastly abominable vile disgusting evil parasitic worthless wretched menial man, this Bill Gates. He is worth not just criticising but annihilating, not by me, mind you. I want United States Government to totally obliterate the scumbag son of a bitch. This would be a philanthropic service to the world.

I love Fitzgerald, as he had a beautiful style style of aesthetic, a true gift of storytelling that hides the mythological landscape in simple narrative style. "So we beat on, boats against the current, borne back ceaselessly into the past." Sublime literate ending of Great Gatsby. You see, my taste in literature was always much more European than American. There is, in Hermann Broch and in Virginia Woolf a tradition whose organic historicity is very deep, familiar for a man with Vedic Noble Ancestry. Only in America does the length of European time seem familiar to one with Indian roots out of the stark contrast with the disconnect in the American Psyche where all things are wildly new and open, detached from constraints, optimistic and also very comically ignorant, vintage is a 1960s furniture piece when in the Old World there are 17th century furniture still used out of sheer lack of money for anything in the catalogue. But this does not mean at all that I am any less American than anyone else. Perhaps just eccentric a little. But the world for me is small, and all continents populated by my beloved people, minus the finances for jetsetting around the globe.

But the idea that someone like Bill Gates would dare to consider himself superior to me is a matter of great amusement. I, Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed, immortal genius and a man of great Virtue, shall never be challenged by black magic-using charlatan who walks in social gatherings with jars of feces in his hands. That would be quite absurd, now, wouldn't it. Perhaps some Americans are confused, but I am quite a bit superior to this horrid nefarious creature Bill Gates. Time will clear up the confusion among Americans too. It makes me laugh just to think about the concept. Bill Gates superior to Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed. What a comical idea. Marvelously outrageous.

6. BILL GATES: LESSON 101 ABOUT RULERS IN AMERICA

United States declared independence from Britain in 1770s and formed a Multi-Ethnic Classical Liberal Democratic Republic. Learn some goddam American history and government you miserable ignorant little shit. First, the Sovereign of America is the collective American People that includes many ethnicities. Around 40 percent of American People are not white, so whites are not "rulers" in America. Rather, the Sovereign, American people have ways to manage political authority by election of legislators and executive branch leader. There are three branches, Legislative consisting of two houses; upper house is the US Senate and the lower house is the House of Representatives. These folks ratify laws that govern the nation. The Executive Branch enforces the laws in the nation. The laws do not favour anyone by ethnicity. Rather, they are universally valid. Who told you 'White People are rulers' etc.? We are not an Ethnocracy, so ethnicity does not matter as the Sovereign is the American People. We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal with inalienable rights endowed by their Creator and governments are instituted among men to secure these rights. The rights are equally endowed to white people and non-white people. White people do not have any right to violate non-white natural rights in this country. What sort of miserable podunk hick place did you learn rubbish like 'White People are rulers'? That's not the way things work in America, you stupid illiterate moron.

7. NO HUMAN BEING HAS ENOUGH PATIENCE FOR AN ILLITERATE HICK MORON REPEATING "WHITES ARE SUPERIOR" DAY AND NIGHT

Who the fuck allowed this illiterate idiotic moron who does not have high school understanding of American Government and History to gain wealth and power in this country? The miserable wretched fool is unable to do understand anything other than primitive racial tribal chants like 'whites are superior'. He's a punk high school moron. Why the fuck didn't the United States Government kick him out of US Industry? Why is a total charlatan like him at a serious spot in US Industry at all. He did not go awry. He was always a total charlatan who was barbaric and savage and primitive all his life posing as a gentleman of learning. He has learned nothing in his entire 66 years of life.

8. FEYERABEND'S "STRUCTURE OF SCIENCE" SOME COMMENTS

The substantial thing that I am interested in, one among a number of things is the idea that electromagnetism in Nature behaves differently than the established theory of James Clerk Maxwell's theory as well as that of Quantum Electrodynamics. I admit that the precise ways in which Nature differs from extant electromagnetic theory is not well-articulated by myself. There are several things that I am quite clear on: (a) there is more symmetry in the electrodynamics of molecules than is apparent from the extant theory of three-dimensional chemistry, and this extra symmetry will be revealed with more careful elaboration of my four-sphere theory, and (b) the description of photons as force carriers is wrong. There exists a clearer and more rigid description of electrodynamics that requires theoretical articulation, again within my four-sphere theory. These are more refined issues in a sense than what had animated my work for the years 2008-2018 when I had great uncertainties regarding whether four-sphere theory could be established without new experiments in Allen Texas far from the intellectual centers of the world. That effort had succeeded, and so this is an obvious next step. However, I was unfortunately accosted by the vile attention of one of the most murderous evil baddies in history, this Bill Gates who has succeeded not only in sabotaging my American Dream, for I have legitimate earning of $120 million from D. E. Shaw & Co. that he obstructed and then he did such horrific disgusting evil US War Power and US Industrial Power and European Black Magic mixed with strategies that would frighten all the villains of horror movies to produce horrific physical pains and other ailments because he seems to believe that white people exist to harm non-white people and to cause misery and pain and suffering. I have never encountered such a deranged evil disgusting vile man in my life and am extremely angry at the United States Government for allowing this to occur. Stanford University has not yet gotten back to me regarding a tenure offer with funds that I had sought, so I am just writing down some thoughts.

So Paul K. Feyerabend's Problems Of Empiricism Volume 2 I had looked at, "The Structure Of Science" pp. 52-64 is interesting because it brings up some things. Feyerabend's clear thought is always inspiring to me. He mentions the example that "molecules" exist in theory but are ostensibly observable. Well his point is different, but it is interesting to take this example and point out that all the elements of Maxwell Electromagnetism and Quantum Electrodynamics have the same sort of status. And the opportunity for sharper understanding lies in putting them aside and examining what theory arises out of a mathematical necessity in four-sphere theory and testing whether we have better Science by simply following mathematical naturality. This is not a general prescription from me but seems to be wise in this instance. For example, in four-sphere theory photons and electrons arise naturally as particles from zonal harmonics of a sphere. The notion of force-carrier seems too luxurious to me. There is something else going on than photons holding things together. This is rather hand-wavy at the moment, but there are other ideas that might be much more natural, such as some sort of natural rigid configuration that produces least stress. These are intuitive terms so do not take these comments as my proposal for scientific theories. For the record I would like to proclaim here my discomfort with theories of 'force carriers'. The universe, absolute space is compact and so we no longer have to worry about things flying apart if there were no 'force carriers' keeping them together. The Expansionary theories of cosmologies are strongly refuted by myself already. The whole concept is not right. Things fall into their proper place without 'force carriers' in my intuitive language for now.

9. RELIGIOUS BANTER FROM FEBRUARY 12 2022

Some US Government officials got Bill Gates 'clever invention' of emptying out all of my deep interior, and using my Life Blood for running all sorts of things. Well this is not very new invention, unfortunately. You see Bill Gates did not need to see the movie Matrix to use my Life Blood as a battery to run things.

Let me tell you a story. Long before the Milky Way existed, yours truly was still an Archangel of Heaven. And this was quite a bit before Homo Sapiens evolved on Earth. And yes, we were still in conflict with Demons then. There are millions of worlds like this in the Universe. I won't try to prove this because that's not important. Four-sphere theory is truth, it's 'scientific theory' so you feel comfortable with it. It's just the way the universe actually is. I am an Archangel and Heaven, and it's my gift to you the Human Race. Heaven is not a single place. We are Heaven, Archangels and Angels. We are Heaven dispersed. You are an Angelic Race. What Bill Gated did to me is nothing new. Demons have done these things for literally time immemorial, billions of years. United States of America is very foolish for allowing this Demon, Bill Gates or whoever, to harm me in this way. United States of America will find that they are distrusted by the Human Race as a result. Yes, this sort of things is what Demons do routinely but besides this Bill Gates I did not detect any other Demons in your world.

I like you. You, the Human Race, I am rather fond of you. But alas I am probably not going to show you much more. Perhaps it is fate. Anyway, don't give so much wealth and power to malevolent Demons. Archangels will stop coming to your world. And that is bad, because I fixed up world order issues here, and Natural Rights World Order will even contain Demon infestation in United States and keep the Human Race alive. I fixed up Science, and Universal Human Morals, value of Virtues extending Aristotle's overthrowing Immanuel Kant and Friedrich Nietzsche's theories. Pay attention to Virtues. They should be correlated with genetic evolutionary adaptations. You're an Angelic Race. There is dignity and pride in Angelic Races, and you will have an opportunity to join Archangels when the race matures. Don't rush to it too soon. It's not a pleasant thing if you're not able to withstand the sort of thing that you saw happened to me. Archangels deal with this sort of trouble. The human body, it's pretty robust. It's not meant for heavy duty Archangel-Demon wars. Don't rush into those sorts of things. You have some ways to mature.
