

CONVERSATION WITH JULIA NOVEMBER 25 2021: LESSON ABOUT TRUTHFULNESS

i explore my things and you explore yours and we find some common things

I KNOW. can i look at u look good. what about smile wow look awesome

you are far too

kind dear. i am most filled with gratitude. i take poetry very seriously. do you find anything special in it?

yes of course

what did u eat today

Oh, not because happiness exists, that over-hasty profit from imminent loss, not out of curiosity, or to practice the heart, which could exist in the laurel..... But because being here is much, and because all that's here seems to need us, the ephemeral, that strangely concerns us.

This is from Rilke's Ninth Elegy.

We: the most ephemeral. Once, for each thing, only once. Once, and no more. And we too, once. Never again. But this once, to have been, though only once, to have been an earthly thing – seems irrevocable.

nice words

do they mean something to you? i have been writing my exegeses

Yes, sure. I always like what you write tell me what they mean to you, if you like of course. it will help me understand you better that we live once and we are ephemeral that is good. re-read. tell me more

I don't understand everything that is fine darling. i have read these poems for three decades from before you were born and i don't either. just relax.

 re-read. tell me more. there is no judgment
 before you were born and i don't either. just relax.
 re-read. tell me more. there is no judgment so do i lol i am already told u what i think you see in this poem that we are ephemeral and we live only once. the poem has more in these lines. do you see them? you yourself wrote a couple of minutes ago that you yourself did not fully understand it. why are you continuing it now? i have understood this poem to some extent but it took me many years. these are rilke's answers to questions of existence and being. so it is valuable. you figured it out in a couple of years. why should i figure it out in a couple of minutes?
 why should you figure it out at all? that's an interesting issue. do you think it worthwhile to spend time on these sorts of things? did you read my message to the end yes. i am interested in understanding your thought processes and interests
 so all takes time i could tell you what i figured out but that is because i do spend a lot of time on these things. many others don't really enjoy doing that with their time. some don't always want to do it right. most people don't think it is worthwhile or interesting way to spend their time. so this sort of thing i spend days and weeks on. with rilke, eliot, shelley. i do it because it fulfills me what else do u do in free time did u eat today i ate bagels with cheese all day?
 several bagels. did you eat dear?
 salads side dishes turkey that's nice. listen to a song. do you know milla jovovich? she is from kiev too "gentleman who fell" she is not from Kiev. she was just born here that's what 'from kiev' means in english idiomatic usage english is peculiar and does not follow any logic PLACE OF BIRTH DOES NOT MEAN A LOCATION but if is say 'i'm from india' in america it is correct. it's english does not follow logic The Klitschko brothers were born in Kazakhstan, but no one says that they are from Kazakhstan. they are from Ukraine do u know Klitschko brothers no. but this is a fascinating point about english. 'from' is not location it is origin in english. it's almost never used for location Jovovich is Russian and Serbian by nationality meaning her parents were?

do you like the song?
yes
see i liked her songs when i was in college. i never really paid attention to her history nationality usually talks about it i generally don't give a damn. i like paul simon. do i don't know a damn thing about his history who is it good good. you are in for a treat. ready to expand your musical horizon?
listen to paul simon "boy in the bubble" you think that if you like music, everyone will like it? r u here
well mostly he is popular most people who have heard very popular musicians like their music among whom or simon and garfunkel "sounds of silence" do you know all the people who heard him? see very popular musicians like paul simon are loved by 80% of americans. maybe not their favourite but well loved do you know all the people who heard him?
do not need to. he's made platinum many times i am not american do you know madonna and michael jackson?
hundreds of musicians had platinum albums yes. and most people will like their music yes but not paul simon are you kidding paul simon did sounds of silence in 1960s he is extremely well loved
i am not american
i understand but i have spoken to so many ukrainian women. they know all the american songs a lot of it ukrainian women from this site
yes they know a lot of american music better than a random sample of maerican women did they tell you the name of the songs themselves or just say YES in response to your questions 5 hours ago look darling. some of the women i spoke to literally wrote to me the lyrics of roy harper's "another day" ukrainian women that i have spoken to are masters of all sorts of american esoteric musicians

The kettle's on, the sun has gone, another day She offers me Tibetan tea on a flower tray She's at the door, she wants to score She dearly needs to say I loved you a long time ago, you know they looked it up sure. but they know a lot of american songs thats cool you never heard "another day" before? do u know how old i am paul simon sold more than 100 million records in his career so he is popular madonna and michael jackson babies compared to those musicians and they are already classics for those who were born 30 years ago many people 20-24 in this site knew him well. it's strange she sold it 50 years ago paul simon is classic here in america I do not believe that the girls know him. they just try to be interesting to you. it's my opinion but roy harper is not as popular. he's nitch [sic meant niche] ok
 maybe. they fooled me i learned about roy harper maybe 2008 first time. he was funky and artsy and esoteric to me. i was impressed by 22 year girls in ukraine in the know Roy Harper might have been her great-grandfather. how could she know about him are u here now well he's a cult figure among some artsy music zealots. i did not take survey but quite a few know him ok listen to this. leonard cohen "a thousand kisses deep"
 ok
 listen to MONATIC
 nice
 what did you think. see leonard cohen has a ult status too ok/ what did you think about MONATIC Monatik
 good rhythm i dont know russian so i cannot judge what about maruv so that's another thing. i am unlikely to get into russian music beyond curiosity at this age most music i listen to are english I'm not Russian if you didn't know maruv in english
 it's okay siren song.
 what zbout ZIVERT
 zivert ok they have talent okay. hows your mood 5 hours ago my mood is the same for months. i am trying to get money and job from england i'll shate a letter

i hope all wil be good
 thank you darling when will u know about it this is open ended no ertainty so time will tell
 yes. it may be never as well. england is my best hope right now lol i am serious too. it's my bid against Bill Gates world order play thats good
 r u tired
 not really. what are you doing?
 relaxing and u
 r u tired
 not really. what are you doing?
 relaxing and u
 hello
 are u busy now no i am promoting a new concept of Asian Continentalism you have supporters well i am promoting them in a crisis. I will tell all Asian governments
 how u will tell them
 zulf
 julia how are you darling?
 i am good slavic linguistic history shows the tie of the cultures to Indo-Iranian people (which I am strongly since I am Bengali-Persian). I know Western Culture very very well, and I guarantee that Russians are not Western European more than they are Indo-Iranian. not even close.
 they may have even Scandinavian ethnic history but their hearts and souls are much more Indo-Iranian than English or Danish I'm talking about looks Ukraine have Scandinavian ethnic history well i had a Danish lover for many years dear. to me the looks are not Scandinavian. Russian and Ukranian women are pale but more Iranian to me rave. how can a bright woman be an Arab haha there are many bright women who are Arabs. Persians are not Arabs where is your danish lover she is in denmark. she left me around 2002 it is clear that she is a Persian or an Arab right and to me most Slavic women look more like her than a Dane why she left u here are many blondes with blue eyes and fair skin after 9/11 i had problems and she had better options in Denmark. we lived in new york how old is she eye colour and skin colour are not the main features. see the persian woman has bluish or greenish eyes and darker hair the lips of slavic women are closer to hers i don't know age. i just looked for pics of Persian women oh god ... in all countries there are women with big lips and small not the same to me. slavic women have lips that are a bit different from scandinavians lol okay its true. there are beautiful women from everywhere but they have very subtle differences in style thats your view Being at the junction of Europe and Asia, Ukraine was subjected to captures by various nations. Here the blood of Slavic peoples, Persians, Mongols, Turks, and many others is present. As a result of a blood intermixture, for example, during the Turkish conquests, a unique beauty was born," - explain all over the world all races and blood have been mixed for a long time. no pure races this is from an expert on Ukrainian ancestries. yes it's my view. I am not really ethnicity oriented 2 hours ago all over the world all races and blood have been mixed for a long time. no pure races well there are degrees of mixtures. Turkish, Mongol, Persian, Slavic leads to new features for sure but its true that there are no 'pure' races. but there are more or less homogeneous ethnicities no one knows for sure well there are results. the work in 1000 genome project is good here. these are not all that mysterious various theories of race and intelligence etc are highly suspect and I have some work on this part of the problem with race-intelligence claims is that the Standard deviations are quite large, so the conclusions are faulty i see so they r wrong white intelligence in america has distribution $N(\mu=100, sd=15)$. that's a wide distribution. and that is typical. all 'races' have wide sd. So you will find plenty of black people who are much more intelligent than 95% of whites and vice versa all the time it's a national pastime in america to get into these debates. and i have a strong position against the right wingers here why do u need it well it's self-interest. i am not white in America. i don't want people to have racist prejudices. what do you mean?

why 135-140
 it's just a test result you don't know for sure, but just guess no i have tests i take to determine this. IQ is not exactly mysterious my SAT score was 1450 these are standardized tests you take and people evaluate them objectively
 i see
 when did u make it
 zulf
 make? IQ and SAT scores are correlated. I was bright as a teenager and had encouragement and respect of my main teachers so these things are not a big deal most Princeton University students have around the same IQ. these Ivy League universities like to admit people who are pretty good IQ so i don't think it's all that special. all my Princeton classmates were around this maybe more or less by a bit
 do you still communicate with them some of them passed away already. we're all busy with our lives. i will do that if I can get settled in San Fran with money. i'll give a dinner in their honour or something can i look where u live now zulf HELLOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO i don't want to send pics of my aunt's house to people dear. it's her privacy not my right yep
 what did u do last hour
 i was doing some work. why? 5 hours ago just asking 5 hours ago you feel a need to know what i am doing all the time right now? listen to sia "elastic heart" yes like this song no its your private time 4 hours ago good! never ever try to monopolize and monitor time of any man at all. that will kill any romance before it begins. that is very bad even after marriage and is due to ANXIETY which leads to failures ok? 4 hours ago you didn't notice that I said that I don't do it 4 hours ago you didn't notice that i am telling you never do it 4 hours ago for your own good. if you feel a man needs to be monitored LEAVE HIM
 notice?
 c id bad on this keyboard princeton ... why are you making mistakes in words ... wow when will u sleep

you want to be bitehy like this for another week? what is your point exactly?

bitehy?

what does it mean

point of what yes random fault finding and criticism of people when ostensibly the idea is to seek romantic compatibility that's bitchy

no. you're wrong. I just don't understand why you were writing so that I don't do something if I've already said that I don't do it because it is one of the top reasons for failure of relationships I've already said that I don't do it

tell me. whats your real age good. don't do it at all with any man. if you feel the urge cut it off

why many of your fellow students have already died

48 un your account some died young

you realise that distrust before anything begins goes nowhere whats your date of birth

November 19?

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

look you would do well to find a new york wall street man who has a good income and is health and family oriented. people i know are a bit older than your best bet. but distrust in early stages of getting to know each other is a dead end. you are distrustful with me and so things will not work i received your letter and let us start from beginning again with in friendship and without commitment to things. i like you and will help you. but talk to other men too

Okay, I'll talk to others too. Can you give me advice on my wardrobe? have you seen my images?

Zulf, I also have a question, is it personal. Will you answer it?

that is fine. look I take my honesty as a matter of great pride. i will not be able to deal with someone who distrusts what I say all that well. it's not very respectful and i don't talk to women who accuse me of being dishonest. i want that to be clear.

I just wanted to ask if you communicate with other women? if I could offend you, then I'm sorry never apologise for anything. i do talk to other women and i have friendships with some on this site. i don't have any commitments with any of them. we enjoy friendship that's right, I am a good student and I can say that I will learn your lesson. I hope you will be proud of me good. the lesson here is if you distrust a man, leave him be. men are not forgiving at all to women who distrust them and accuse them of lying. i have seen ugly ugly relationships when people stay together but do not trust each other. it is not worth it for either party.

I completely trust you !! I have no reason not to believe you. Where do these thoughts come from?

you just asked for me real age darling. why would i lie about my University and real age to people across the world that I only know through internet?

i don't lie about anything at all. that's one of my top virtues. it does not do me good always but that's part of who i am you misunderstood me, I want you to know, I believe you! I believe every word you say!

good. next lesson. NEVER LIE TO ANYONE EVER FOR ANY REASON AT ALL EVER. see you are 26 and you have had some success in life so you might not understand this but your opportunities will go to ZERO in two minutes in the future if you do not 100% understand this lesson.

never lie to potential suitors. never lie to the guy in the bakery. never lie to the janitor. never lie to the bank or government. never lie at all to anyone. if you master this you will have great life people in the modern age think they will get anywhere but it's impossible. you have to always tell the truth even if you get hurt by it ok i will memorize this lesson very well if we never meet and you find a beautiful life with mansions and accolades still remember this. never ever ever lie at all. it's okay if you make an error by accident. but it's for YOUR GOOD not theirs you have a $100 million contract from great business genius. you don't even know how you will be dragged through the streets and hanged if your enemies find lies. it's serious it will be very scary is your aunt going to cook the gala dinner?

no. but i do want you to take this seriously deep in your heart. be aware that you always speak only truth. it will give you a great deal of self-respect and allow you greater opportunities. people who lie a lot and succeed like gates are anomalies. truthfulness is naturally respected it is the natural measure of NOBILITY from Ancient Greeks to Ancient Hindus to all Aristocracy in history. NEVER EVER LIE PERIOD

Zulf, your words have already been deposited in my head. rest assured, your lesson was not in vain oh no no. this is so important that you can have $2 and three frocks and be the queen of the world if you get it. people do not understand it at all in business schools at Harvard. truthfulness is not for fools. it is for the kings and queens of the world i will change topics. i am very pleased to try to convey the importance of this

I am pleased that you convey information to me so accurately, after your exact examples it is easy to remember and understand it just do it darling. always speak the truth to everyone . you will see your life improves did you get a response from John Roberts?

no he is high up. he does not actually respond to emails directly. he does consider. a lot of things happen with no public written record high power considers. i don't have their power i am loud in email to compensate. Supreme Court will archive them for their records oh, I thought he or someone from his team would give you an answer. did you write new letters?

there is an automatic response from US Supreme Court that says 'we acknowledge receipt of letter' etc. the real game is bigger

1. DIGNIFIED DRESSING

wow, so many things, I will try to remember everything and take into account well google 'dignified dressing catholics' instead. Catholics have guidelines. you do not want to be a Ukrainian woman and get low reputation at all in America. it will damage your opportunity set now for private bedroom you can dress how you want and be as sexy as you please but never in public but my religion is christianity that's fine. Catholics know this better than Orthodox or Protestants. they have been doing this for longer remember your reputation is a great asset. do not squander it. especially in America

Americans are nice in public but they are total gossips behind your back

Are the Americans generally kind people?

well yes but they are not kind to Russian or Ukrainian women who dress in any undignified manner. they will be sweet to you and all you a skank behind your back

*call you a skank

Well, this is mean! speak behind the back tight revealing sexy dresses are for private home not for use in public. some women do that but they are not respected darling mean or whatever. they are 330 million. you will change them because you don't like the way they are?

no just get wardrobe that meets the dignity criteria and put the others away for use for bedroom with your lover

I dress at home as in the video i don't watch vids. are you following me dear? I am being good to you

I keep forgetting about it. why do you say that I'm stalking you? who said anything about stalking? we are having an interesting conversation with you, you give examples and I want to show you my example maybe this is not the accuracy of the translation? well post a pic. anyway, the main issue here is dress in dignified manner according to guidelines of Catholics. that is safest that's fine. but some of the other pics you sent in mail are not going to do you good if you dress like that in public in America. they might tell you they are liberal etc. but society will consider you a slut are you talking about short dresses? here are other rules like low V, showing cleavage etc. those are great for sexy time with your lover but never go out in public streets or parties etc. in that sort of dressing. even if you see other women do it you will be considered low class by american society and that has bad consequences but what about American stars? Well they dress very frankly what does society say about them? they have MONEY darling. they only dress like that in television and other events. public never sees them like that do not be naive darling. america is puritan country and religious too a slut with a billion dollars is great because she is avant garde and risqué. a woman without billions who dresses frankly will be considered disreputable. just how the world works I agree, I don't know a lot, that's why I asked the one who knows exactly what and how just google 'catholic dignity guidelines' and there are many good sites. you see Catholics have dealt with it in Western Europe for millenia so they are masters at it. America is around 20% Catholic. frank dress in the bedroom with your lover not in streets What is your dress style?
 i like Hugo Boss with full sleeve shirts and dress pants. i never wear t-shirts with all manner of pictures. i am not fashionable right now but i like vests and ties for work.
 i do not go near skin art and tattoos. i don't like wearing gaudy jewelry i prefer in women total sacredness of skin and no tattoos etc, but not strict about it. i think it is not good taste what will you get in the coming days? a full length photo for you. i have not been doing much of that take this seriously about dignified dressing. in kiev and moscow this is not a problem. in america it will be yes, it's okay for us to wear what I have)))))) you see you will see a lot of women dress frankly in new york, los angeles and san fran but you will not have access to higher levels of society. you won't even know why an hour ago there is a book bay Colleen Hammond called Dressing With Dignity as well. all you need to do is separate private dressing from public.

which means: "you will not have access to the higher strata of society" you see unless you are already a successful and wealthy model or celebrity, in parties etc, you will not be considered respectable and so if you want to do something in business, in psychology, in government, etc, people will be dismissive now I understand, but I al ays wanted a simple family life, I'm not interested in being famous they will just think of you as a ukrainian trophy or a slut or skank why do you say: "Ukrainian trophies" americans are judgmental. they consider often men who marry ukrainian brides to be trophies for some wealth

Are you saying that an American who marries a Ukrainian girl is doing something wrong?

let's say hypothetically you and i get together. then i will be put at a disadvantage if you dress frankly in public because i want to be respected and i want people to think of my wife as dignified and aristocratic

Well American society has a lot of complexity. americans do all sorts of things. when a white american marries a ukrainian rather than another white American, they have gossip too is the opinion of people important to you?

now i am immigrant Asian-American. i am only good in urban coastal cities well no, but i don't want to be with someone who does not dress in a dignified manner in public independently. that's not me all my past lovers had a handle on how to navigate this naturally. so i will be a fish out of water

I am sure that if we are a couple who will go out for a walk, you will not blush for me darling, i don't care what you like to wear in private spcces but i have lived in America for 34 years and I don't want to get you in harm's way. America has problems for women who dress frankly in public. Civilisation has been going on for 20 thousand years. it's not going to change by our want men will mistreat you in streets, if they are blue collar. professionals will consider you a slut and your social options will reduce. i have been around. i am sure of these well it does not matter if you are with me or some other american man, do not dress frankly in public. let madonna do it or some other huge billionaire celebrity. you have to preserve your dignity. be comfortable with your body but don't trigger all the bad elements of society that's how it will be there are feminists in america who demand that men treat them with respect and say 'we have a right to do what we want'. men are going to do what? Not ogle them, not check them out sexually? they are crazy I like it when you communicate with me respectfully and it will be silly if because of the clothes it is not so how are preparations for the holiday going at home?

you don't misunderstand. i like you. i always communicate with most people respectfully. i will not think less of you if you live in ukraine and dress how you like and marry a man you fall in love but i am american and i have traveled through europe and south america and india. i can guarantee that men will molest you in most places or treat you sexually inappropriately if you dress frankly does that make sense?
i will be an angel makes sense to keep their face and dignity it's not arbitrary. people have perfected the appropriate guidelines FROM CENTURIES OF EXPERIENCE and that you MUST respect. because human nature has not changed much will a man always be a hunter?
no. the male sexual system is very very very old. we all have libido. we are aroused by sexual exposure. gentlemen can manage this without too much trouble do gentlemen have a different mind? but 80% of men are not remotely close to gentlemen deeper than a mask. so they react to their natural biological drives no gentlemen have a refined soul from habituation are you in control of yourself easily? yes but i will ogle a sexually attractive woman in the streets showing her cleavage. i don't think that is a big deal i won't mistreat her if i had to talk to her but i don't see why i can't ogle or check an attractive woman out visually I think that a woman is always pleased with the attention of men when it does not go beyond well you don't control that. some women are and others find it annoying some men will be aggressive and touch you or worse. america is varied believe me, any woman happily accepts the compliments of men not about sexual attractiveness from inappropriate parties it is better to avoid aggressive attention ok let me put it to you differently. say for hypothetical sake you are a husband and a father. do you want your wife to be out and about drawing sexual attention of every pervert on Earth?

of course not that is why the lady has to do the right thing too. keep sexy feel for private intimate moments with safety. in public who knows what street goon who was sexually frustrated gets obsessed with you of course it will be so, I understand you do you write poetry?

just read. my brother is the poet of the family. i am a refined reader

Well, as I see you, you have a lot of other talents
