

ZULF ON ADVANCED PROPAGANDA TECHNIQUES:
MUHAMMAD CANNOT MATCH ZULF WHEN ZULF'S
SELF-INTERESTS ARE THREATENED

Motivation of Self-Interests can indeed lead people to greater heights than the Prophet Muhammad. If you are actually knowledgeable about Christianity and Judaism and Islam, and do not just blow hot air with shallow shim-sham, you will know that Quranic prose has a majesty and power that is unparalleled in the world. You literally have 1.5 billion Muslims in the world who are moved by it, who believe in the Holiness of the Quranic verses. I personally was not as enthusiastic as my grandmother (maternal) and my mother. My father was also Muslim but his real religion was public service, the well-being of Bengalis, and he worked relentlessly till his death, beloved of the people of Bengal.

To say that Quranic or Biblical language is 'divine' is to miss the point. The right way to see the language is that it is extremely intelligent and genius in the art of coercing people and compelling people to do things by taking advantage of deep psychological knowledge of human nature. This is not flim-flam. Most of the modern commentaries of Quran and Bible are flim-flam but the actual verses are not.

They are refined sorts of texts; their purpose is to compel something without arms, without helicopter gunships, or large bands of men with guns. Now that is impressive. Zulf is impressed by it.

I can't even get my brother to move from the couch and watch a movie, ladies and gentlemen, when he is not in the mood. But a Quranic verse or Biblical verse can get billions of people to actually get up and go and do all sorts of things. That is quite wildly successful.

Now I want the US Government officials to secure Natural Rights. Mostly mine first. I love my own Natural Rights to be secure from the Bill Gateses of the world. Then I have to do this by compelling all these sons of bitches to actually punish criminals like Bill Gates when I follow the law, I am the good guy, and he cuts into my eyes all the way to deep interior with extreme destruction, and they are more worried about his interests than mine.

Obviously I will be extremely upset. But alas, me getting upset and angry is not enough to compel the US Government officials to actually do anything at all. They will say, if they are lazy ass fucks, "Well, Zulf is upset, but who cares? He does not have enough power and Bill Gates is prominent. So we will just let Bill Gates do whatever the fuck Bill Gates wants, including kill Zulf by illicit power meta and ignore the whole thing because Bill is right; he's not white and doesn't have a lot of power and so we're safe anyway. We got our pension plan that's guaranteed. We have good salaries. We have good benefits from the government. Things are good if we don't do shit about Bill Gates doing horrible crimes. He has money for God's sake. Zulf what does he have?"

They could say those things, and the next thing you know Bill Gates is feeling pretty good because his reasoning is "Bill is big so Bill can just murder little guys and that's the way it has always worked." He might even say to US Security, "Don't you think Bill is right to destroy Zulf's interior. I'm big so I can do it."

Now whining about this will not change a goddam thing. So Zulf has to create propaganda that will make one half of the US Government execute and kill the other half by all sorts of propaganda. The goal of the propaganda is to incite in one half of the government religious feelings of devotion to Natural Rights from US Declaration from the nationalist ra ra and then get so intensely rapturous that, glock in hand, they will just execute the corrupt traitors amongst their midst. Now Zulf will of course want to ensure that Zulf doesn't know anything about what led to a great purge deep within the US Government. If the Potomac River turns into a river of blood, Zulf will claim no actual interference. Besides, Zulf is an Aristocrat, and my manicured nails cannot be damaged by all sorts of atrocious bloodshed.

First phase of the strategy is straightforward. I can just say: US Government officials who believe in US Declaration please find the traitors who are supporting Bill Gates while he abuses my Natural Rights, having illegitimately cut up my eyes and invaded my deep interior. Tell them to leave US Government for they are Traitors or if push comes to shove execute all of these sons of bitches.

Now this straightforward suggestion will not usually actually work. And that is where the religious strategies really begin to shine.
