

BILL GATES IS THE MOST SELFISH LITTLE CUNT IN THE UNIVERSE OBSESSED WITH WHITE LOYALTY

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Bill Gates is the most selfish little cunt in the universe obsessed with white loyalty. Look at yourself in the mirror you stupid shit. What have you done for white people exactly?

Look, let me straighten you out. Human beings are loyal only when their self-interests are served first. Who taught you about this rubbish of 'white loyalty'. You're not loyal to white people. Look at how you screwed Paul Allen. He was white. Were you loyal to the white man? No. So don't ask repeatedly "Duh I don't understand why white people would do blah blah."

Learn from Zulf. You see, Billy Boy, all human beings are self-interested, and then, when it is pleasant and reasonable, and joyful, they also show some loyalty. Whether you are white or brown or red or yellow does not matter. We are human beings. We are loyal to some people, for whatever reasons, when our self-interests are satisfied first. Ok? Can you absorb this or this is too complicated for your puny intellect?

So white loyalty will go out the window for all white people when their self-interest is sufficiently threatened. It's too much of a luxury to have all manner of loyalty based on criteria that is not in your control.

Me, I am never loyal to anyone who is not going to be my friend. I am loyal to people who love me and care about my well-being. I am not loyal to people based on all manner of random things. Next thing you know some other idiot will demand that people be loyal to those who wear those berets and green polo t-shirts. I'm not going to get into those fads.

I think it's best to be loyal to those who love you and care genuinely for your well-being and welfare and keep a generic politeness and civility towards people who are neutral. Now you, Billy Boy, have hurt me. So I'll whack you. Simple as that. Loyalty is not automatic, more generally.

1. YOU DON'T LOVE WHITE PEOPLE BILLY BOY

Do you think that destroying me and giving credit for my things to white people is any love for white people? No. It's not their work. They will do what, prance around claiming someone else's work is theirs?

Do you think destroying my life and ensuring that I have no earning and cannot get my $620 million of my own money and sabotaging my American Dream is what? Out of love of white people? No Billy Boy, that shows no love for no white people.

You dare call yourself a philanthropist and you don't even love a single person on Earth. You don't love white people. It's clear. You are obsessed by racial supremacy theory based on irrational beliefs, but white people are not abstract.

Date: December 4, 2021.

They are real people. You don't love any of those real people who are white. You hate white people. You want them as your subordinates. You want to use them. You want to destroy non-white people. You are a pathetic worthless little cunt Bill Gates. A pathetic worthless little cunt.

If you loved white people why did your white wife leave you? Your white wife left you because you did not love the white person. A tragic and twisted pathetic little cunt you are.

2. THAT'S BAD YOU'RE GOLLUM BILL GATES

You don't understand any of this do you? You're obsessed only with power? That's bad. You're Gollum.

Right, so Billy Boy, you are totally obsessed with power and so you don't actually care about white people at all. You should be whacked. Social issues such as politics should not have any influence from people who are so deranged and degenerate that you pretend that "White Rule" means anything at all. You should not be alive at all. You need to die.

3. NO LAW OF NATURE SAYS WHITE PEOPLE OUGHT TO RULE THE WORLD

Look, Bill Gates, your ideas are too stupid. When Egypt had a great totally non-white Civilisation all the white people in Europe were foragers and hunter-gatherers. The world did fine without white rule then. No law of nature says that white people have to rule, therefore. You don't understand anything about issues of politics at all. You see, the human race today has eight billion people, of whom only 10% are white. We need organisation that enables everyone, white or not, to have good life satisfaction, opportunities to do meaningful productive work that they love, harmony and love among people, prosperity and health for all people. Unfortunately you are too stupid to understand that ethnicity does not provide any magic to be able to make the right decisions to ensure these goals. People from all over the world, of all ethnicities do make progress on these problems. You, Bill Gates, are not one of them.
