

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WILL BE HELD IN CONTEMPT OF ALMOST ALL HUMAN RACE UNLESS BILL
GATES IS DESTROYED

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

Human Moral Nature is an evolutionary outcome over four million years. On intense clear moral issues it is almost inevitable that there will be uncanny independent agreement among 95% of the Human Race.

Now I have carefully examined Bill Gates' moral crimes against myself and believe that they are so outrageously clear, so outrageously black and white, so outrageously gratuitous Evil versus Good that we will have a global consensus of strength of 95% that Bill Gates ought to be destroyed with extreme prejudice.

At this point, it will be the United States Government that will be held responsible for all his crimes unless US Government manages to completely destroy Bill Gates.

Moral issues are deeper than issues of money and economy when they are clear, and US Government will not just lose all trust which is already low, but lose all legitimacy which will be quite bad.

United States Government officials ought to be cognizant that they will also be held personally to have been collaborators of one of the greatest Evil to have existed in millenia and will face threat of harm from the populace, not by my desire. That's just Human Nature in action.

I would advise US Government Officials to stop being little bitches and pretend that Bill Gates is an asset to the US Economy. He is not and he never was. So kill him soon or face the consequences.
